BTOCKS The stock market this morning opened strong, and there was general improvement in prices, led by New Jersey Centra which sold up to 841 against 842 at the c.ose last evening. Subsequently there was a vigorous selling movement, under which the advance was not only lost, but prices were forced down to the lowest of the day, which were generally current $8 25 a 9 00. shortly after midday. During the afternoon, however, a stronger tone set in, and prices, under the leasership of Lake Shore, Missouri Pacific and Western Union, advanced sharply, the highest quotations of the day being generally current in final dealings. Following are the closing prices. Am'n Dist. Tel. 47 Manhattan El. 52½

MERHIE MASQUERADE.

The Chalk Club Will Celebrate Its Fifth Anniversary in a Grand Ball.

The Question of Costumes the Most Perplexing Point of All.

Proposed Resolution of Indignation at the Cruel Action of the Mercenary Æsthetic.

"The great society event of the season, sir!" exclaimed Col. Frank Moore this morning as he paused for breath while selling tickets for Europe, and then left the poor reporter in a maze of astonishment and bewildering doubt as to what the genial secretary of the Chalk club meant. Afterwards, under the implicit bond of secrecy, he explained:

"You see, I was so busy a few minutes ago that I couldn't tell you what wanted to. The grand event I referred to is none other than a masquerade to be given April 1st by the club at Turner hall. Col. Frank Hanlon has gone east to-day to look for suitable costumes. If the costumes which we have sont for can be procured in time the masquerade will aurely be held by April 1st." The reporter opened his mouth to say something, but his whole comtenance was swallowed up in an interrogation point, and so the gracious informant went on:

"You see, there is some trouble about these costumes. Mr. Hanscom wants to be the fairy, but his figure is a little off for wings. Frank Hanlon has hit it about right. He will represent a boquet, or a nose-gay, as it were. Joe Tehon is to be "One Hundred Years Ago," or what he knew in the Sweetwater. Maxwell will no doubt be the "Cool Minnesota," Jim Watson and Pat Cooley will probably represent "The Two Orphaus." Charley Ogden has expressed an inclination to represent one of the Darwinian Antipodes, but many of his friends, in view of the political contest next fall, are endeavoring to cissuade him from what they regard too great a desire to cling to the habits of his ancestors. I, myself,"-and here Mr. Moore's countenance brightened and he drew himself proudly up

--"I will doubtless represent the 'Father of Our Country,' because it is well known that I cannot tell a lie." By this time the reporter had fainted, and was carried into the rear to be revived with a draught of Joe Tehon's New Year's reception beverage-pure Missouri.
