MINOR MENTION.

N. Y. Plumbing company.
Coal and wood, E. E. Mayne, 619 B'way.
Three drunks squared themselves with cash yesterday morning in police courts.
The funeral of Miss Maggie Philbin will take place from St. Francis Xavier's church at 10 o'clock this morning.

A chicken pie social will be held at the Y.
M. C. A. rooms to-morrow evening. Supper will be served from 5 to 8. All are invited.
The board of county supervisors meet next Monday to look over the county's business for the past quarter and prepare for the next three months.

A chicken pie social will be held at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association Friday, March 29, at 8 o'clock. Supper will be served from 5 till 8 o'clock. All are invited.

At a meeting of the Bluff City Typographical union No. 265, Mr. R. S. Rawlins was elected as a delegate to the Denver convention in June to represent the local branch of that organization.

In giving the amount of the taxes of Messrs. Horace Everett and Officer Pusey, the figures in yesterday's Bee were reversed.
It should have been Everett, $2,500 and Officer Pusey $4,000.

Harry Luman has purchased the grocery business of E. E. Henry, at 533 Broadway, and will put in a stock of fancy groceries, fruit, and confectionery. He proposes to run the place as a fruit emporium.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Baptist church will give a social entertainment at the residence of H. Pethybridge, 232 Vine street, this evening. A good time is anticipated and everybody is invited to attend.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Harry P. Thomas and Flora B. McMahon, C. L. Sorenson and Gertrude D. Frederickson, Henry S. Terry and Adela Wilding, and Jacob W. Brewer and Morilla Wilding, all of this county.

The plate glass for the county court house has been on hand for some time, but has not yet been placed in position. It is expected that the supervisors will order it done at their coming meeting, and also prepare to have the grounds surrounding the building immediately sodded.

Some boys started a prairie fire at Neola yesterday, and it soon got beyond control and destroyed a barn. The contents of the building were all removed. It is the counterpart of the fire in the western part of the city Sunday morning, except that in the latter case the fire department managed to save the building.

The stockholders of the Union Driving park will hold a meeting at 8 o'clock tomorrow afternoon to discuss the advisability of holding a May running meeting. Several of the stockholders are in favor of it, and it is thought probable that the meeting will be held, but the chances are very dark for any troubling meetings this year.

A still alarm will be presented at Doherty's this evening. The company carries a genuine Slayby engine, weighing 2,000 pounds, and a pair of splendidly trained horses. The instructor is a man who has served in a most realistic manner, and the slide down the poles, quick hitch, and run are all done in a most natural manner. The engine and horses will be driven over from Omaha this morning.

Notice to Workmen.
There will be a labor meeting at G. A. R. hall to-night, March 28. All workmen are cordially invited to attend.

Races For the Runners.
A meeting of the David Bradley hooks was held at No. 4 house last evening for the purpose of appointing a committee to confer with a like committee from the Rescue hosteam relative to making arrangements for an excursion to Nebraska City or some other neighboring city on the 25th of May.
A special train will be chartered, and the excursion will be held on the 25th. The day will be devoted to horse races, spring races, and other athletic sports. No teams aside from the visitors of this city and those belonging to the place where the races are held will be allowed to compete. Small prizes will be given. The date fixed is only two weeks before the tournament, and all of the races will be in good condition.

To Make Horse Collars.

Work was commenced yesterday morning on the foundation for a horse collar factory at the corner of Thirty-second street and Avenue A. This new enterprise is secured by the board of trade, and it will undoubtedly prove to be a paying one. The new building will be a two story frame, 25x50 feet, and will cost $2,000. Employment will be given to ten men. The contractor has agreed to have the building ready for occupancy in two weeks, and the proprietor is anxious to remove from the other side of the river as soon as possible, as his quarters there are too small. The board of trade nailed the lot to him as an inducement to locate here. The location is on the electric motor line, and but two blocks from the proposed new depot to be erected by the motor company.

The Federal Court.

Judge Shiras arrived yesterday morning from Dubuque, and occupied his place by the side of Judge Love when court was opened. The damage case of Bernard Bergman vs. the Omaha & St. Louis railway company was placed on trial before Judge Love, and Judge Shiras heard the equity case of the Loan and Trust Savings bank vs. Edmund Latham in one of the small court rooms. The latter case was submitted about 8 o'clock. The damage case will occupy the attention of the court for two or three days.

The case of Seth M. Smith, administrator, vs. the Chicago & Northwestern railway company, was settled and dismissed.

Claus Pfeiffer, of Crawford county, pleaded guilty of selling whisky without a license and was fined $10 and costs. The case against him and others on bail bond was dismissed and the costs taxed up to the defendants.

The grand jury returned an indictment against T. F. Mahan. The defendant is charged with rifling the United States mail, and obtaining money from a registered letter at Davenport.

He was taken to Des Moines and given a hearing before United States Commissioner John Jordan and his case transferred here, and he was ordered confined in the jail of this county. He was admitted to bail Tuesday evening. He waived arraignment, and will be allowed to plead this morning. His wife and mother arrived in the city yesterday morning, and are quite prostrated with grief over the affair. Mr. V. Gannon, of Omaha, will defend him.

Cut Down the Expenses.

"Now don't say a word to me about the new officials," said an alderman yesterday as a Bee reporter approached, without giving the latter a chance to open his head. "I have been quizzed until I am weary and sick at heart, and I don't want you to slip a word on that subject. I will tell you something, however, but don't you say that an alderman told you. I just want to call your attention to the expense of running the fire department."

"It seems to me that the expense of the fire department is too high. I don't know without the services of two or three of those firemen at the Broadway fire house. These men are kept there to play rubbers for that big truck, and there is no earthly sense in it.
They might just as well be discharged and the truck kept out of active service. I am not in favor of discharging the men, but I would never give my consent to it, but I think it foolish to maintain it in the present style at the existing expense. As I have always maintained it might seem to be needed most urgently, and for that reason we ought to keep it, as it might save a human life, but I am not in favor of it. The whole thing at the No. 4 house there are always enough men who help at such a time to man the apparatus and handle it. I know that the fire department is too much money, but I don't think retrenchment in the way I have suggested is advisable. I know some of you fellows want to get rid of the truck, but I am not with you in that. The whole thing will come up in council before very long, and then we shall see what we shall do."

Potatoes Given Away.

Having more potatoes than we will be able to sell before new potatoes arrive, we will, until our stock of potatoes is reduced, give to each person making a "do" call on us at one time one bushel of fine potatoes. Come while they last. Parks & Son, grocers, 36

Wouldn't Be Collared.

For some time affairs have not rolled along smoothly in the family of Morrill Hendry, the Upper Broadway blacksmith. A separation resulted some time ago, and since then there has been more or less trouble. Yesterday morning the woman visited his shop and another row ensued, which resulted in Hendry putting her out into the street. She found Patrol Driver Hendricks and asked him to arrest her husband. Hendricks, who is the giant of the police force, readily acquiesced.
Hendry demurred, and the "peeler" smiled as he thought what a picnic he would have in taking her to the "little uni" in jail. At though considerably below medium stature, Hendry is not the easiest man in the world to handle, and the officer was not long in finding it out. It was like a battle between a Shanghai and a game bantam. There was only one fly. Hendricks grabbed his intended prisoner by the throat and jammed him against the wall, but the next thing he knew he was flying across the shop and sprawled in a heap in the corner. Whatever his other faults may be, Hendricks is no hog —he knows when he has had enough. As he tenderly wiped the crimson drops from his deeply wounded countenance, he decided that it would be well to arbitrate. Hendry said that he would not walk down street with the officer, but offered to walk behind him. The officer's other fault may be, Hendricks is no
