NORTH AND SOUTH RAILWAY

What Various States Are Doing to Promote the Affair.

LIST OF SOUTH DAKOTA DELEGATES

Nebraskans Who Will Represent Their State at the Convention—Approaching Love Feast of the Populist Party at Lincoln.

LINCOLN, June 24.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Charles H. Sheldon, governor of South Dakota, has written Governor Crouse under date of June 22, inclosing the following list of delegates to the Interstate North and South railway convention in this city June 28. Hon. W. P. Dewey, Jr., Yankton; Major A. R. Anderson, Hot Springs; Hon. W. J. Thornby, Hermosa; Captain J. H. Hanson, Aberdeen; Colonel S. M. Linnard, Pierre; Hon. W. H. H. Beadle, Madison; Colonel W. L. Palmer, Carthage; Hon. H. F. Hunter, Mellette; Colonel S. C. Leppleman, Gettysburg; Hon. H. F. Smith, Groton.

"I have no assurance, writes Governor Sheldon, 'that all of those gentlemen will attend, but I trust that such as are present will represent the sentiment of the conservative people of this state.'"

Intelligence received at the executive office indicates that delegates will be present from Iowa, Minnesota, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, South Dakota, Nebraska, North Dakota, Missouri and Arkansas as probably not respond to the invitation, as nothing has been received from those states to indicate that delegates will be present.

The Nebraska delegation comprises: Hon. H. G. Stewart, Crawford; H. T. Clark, Omaha; J. N. Galbraith, Colton; W. L. Wilson, Nebraska City; W. V. Allen, Madison; E. E. Howard, Fairfield; D. L. Poud, Lincoln; Lawson Sheldon, Nebraska City; J. J. Jensen, Amana; Max Meyer, Omaha; Joel Hull, Minden; C. C. McNish, Waverly; J. Burrows, Lincoln; W. Hand, Kearney; A. J. Sawyer, Lincoln; C. P. R. Williams, Grand Island; William Dyar, Superior; B. F. Pratt, Clark; Fred G. Shafter, Lincoln; W. F. Dale, Atlanta.

Mayor Weir has called a meeting of citizens to occur next Monday evening to arrange for the reception and entertainment of the delegates. A reception committee will at that time be chosen and arrangements made for a formal reception later.

Populist Party's Love Feast.

Local members of the populist party are looking to a rousing love feast in the city Wednesday, which will be the date not only of the north and south railway convention, but also that upon which Senator Allen is to address the populists of this vicinity. The latter event will occur either in representative hall or the court house. It is also expected that Hon. Jerry Simpson, the sockless Kansan, will speak at this meeting, as he is expected to be here as a delegate to the railway convention.

Crushed to Death.

W. E. Livingston, a Burlington switchman, was instantly killed at 1 o'clock this morning in the yards at this city. A switch engine was backing some cars up to couple with one laden with corn. The young fellow raised the link in the drawhead of one of the empty too high, and as it naturally stands higher than one of a loaded car, it slipped over the other drawhead and the bumpers catching Livingston by the head crushed it to a pulp. It was quite dark at the time and some particulars were found by the coroner's jury to be to blame, but the accident was due to the lack of industry

Bishop Bonneau's Troubles.

Excitement is still at fever heat among the local Catholics in the cathedral of Father Loughran as rector of St. Theresa's cathedral, and a meeting will be held tomorrow to discuss the matter, the following notice signed by John Fitzgerald, John F. Sutton, T. G. Kelly, Charles J. McGlave and James J. Condon having been sent to the various newspaper offices:

"TO THE MEMBERS OF ST. THERESA'S CONGREGATION, CITY OF LINCOLN: An important meeting will be held at St. Theresa's cathedral, at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, to take suitable action relative to the removal of Rev. Francis L. Loughran from the rectorship of the parish. It is urgently requested that every member of the congregation, both male and female, be present."

It also develops that Father Quinn, one of the priests who had signed the manifesto to St. John's, is having more trouble with the bishop. He had been originally removed from a mission, unjustly, as he reported, and one of the clauses of the agreement which St. John's compelled Bonneau to sign at Omaha Wednesday was a promise on the part of the bishop to restore to him the mission of St. Elizabeth which he had been removed. Yesterday Father Quinn called upon the bishop to find out to what mission he proposed sending him, but no sooner had the bishop caught sight of him in his room than, according to the father's story, he flew into a rage and ordered him out of the house, threatening to kick him out, he did not immediately depart, and demanding to know how he dared come into his house.

"I have no assurance," writes Governor Sheldon, "that all of those gentlemen will attend, but I trust that such as are present will represent the sentiment of the conservative people of this state."

It was quite dark at the time and some particulars were found by the coroner's jury to be to blame, but the accident was due to the lack of industry proof library building; that under this authority the university authorities entered into a contract with Abraham Rosenbush of Omaha in the sum of $9,948, for the erection of the building, to be completed by December, 1893; that said Rosenbush had begun work under the contract and had rendered services to the amount of about $29,000; that work was suspended about the middle of December because of cold weather, and had not been resumed for that reason; that the contractor would resume work as soon as the weather would permit, and there remained unexpended of the appropriation $12,000; that the auditor, on the 29th of March, 1893, drew a certificate and voucher for the unexpended balance, no objection being made by the auditor to the form of the same or the amount specified. The object of this action on the part of the university authorities was to get the money out of the treasury under the mistaken idea that the appropriation would lapse before the contract could be completed.

Auditor Moore returned the vouchers, declining to pay the same at that time for the reason that it nowhere appeared that the work had been done, money as furnished or services rendered upon which the amount could apply. He declined to pay the money in advance.

Dales asked for an order upon the auditor requiring him to pay the money over, but the supreme court said in its opinion:

Section 2 of the act provides that: "The auditor of public accounts is hereby authorized and required upon the presentation of the proper vouchers to draw his warrant on the state fund, and against the appropriation made in section 1 of this act, in favor of the party performing the service, for the amount due, and such warrant shall give the name of the person and nature of the service."

The court further defines the term "voucher," when used in connection with the disbursement of money, to mean a written or printed instrument in the nature of a bill of particulars, account, etc., which shows on what account and against what appropriation the money is to be paid.

It will be observed [said the court] that the auditor is authorized to draw his warrant only in those cases where the proper vouchers are presented to him. The warrants are to be drawn from time to time as may be required, but the auditor is not to draw a warrant until the auditor is to act. There is no authority for his secreting away the vouchers and drawing any portion of the appropriation except as he may present vouchers for work or material expended in the prosecution of the contract.

The court also cites the following from the Twenty-second Nebraska, page 18, in the case of State ex rel. James against Babcock:

The constitution of the state requires that all claims upon the state treasury must be examined and adjusted by the auditor, and his action approved by the secretary of state, before any money can be drawn therefrom. This provision applies to all claims, whether claimed by virtue of a specific appropriation or not.

In his recent opinion in the impeachment of Judge Norval intimates that he seriously questions the right to pay out an appropriation in lump sums.

Lancaster's Salt Lake Lands.

Under the act of the recent session affecting lands around the salt lake property, which is to be sold to the lessees after August 1, 1893, subject to the school land laws, to be sold to the lessees after that date, but there will be no public sale. All of this land is located in Lancaster county, about 1,000 acres of it being in the salt basin west of this city and lying around the salt lake property, which is located thereon. The projectors of the lake enterprise now hold the leases for this land, having purchased them from former holders thereof. The land will be reappraised and the holders of leases will surrender them and receive purchase deeds upon the payment of the appraised value.

There have heretofore been two acts authorizing the absolute sale of salt lake lands in this county. One was enacted February 15, 1892, and under it 19,355 acres were sold in 1892 and 1879, bringing from $5 to $7 per acre. Under an act of 1885 there were 650 acres sold at from $10 to $14 per acre. There are 650 acres subject to sale under the recent act at prices yet to be fixed. It is scattered all over the county.

City in Brief.

Mrs. Benson, wife of Attorney Benson of Omaha, died last night in her husband's arms while being taken to a work from the Burlington depot to the insane asylum. She had been confined in the asylum on several different occasions and was again attacked a few days ago. She had been alone for some time. The body was removed to Galle's undertaking rooms, where it still lies untouched, the deceased having frequently requested that she be not disturbed for at least one day after her supposed death, so fearful was she of being buried alive.

A woman, evidently a denizen, who gave her name as Robinson and her parents as residents of Omaha, was found lying on the sidewalk at Tenth and P at an late hour last night. She had been an inmate of a Denver asylum for three years and was on her way home.

The bids on the state printing contract have not yet been tabulated complete and no awards will be made before Monday. The bid of the State Journal, which was the lowest representative of the combine and the lowest when the bids were opened last April, has a bid in this year's first price, from one-fourth to one-half the former price.

BEATRICE CHAUTAUQUA CLOSED.

It was a Remarkable Success in Every Particular.

BEATRICE, June 24.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The Beatrice Chautauqua assembly for 1893 closed tonight. The attendance this evening was large and the closing feature, the Columbian spectacular entertainment, was a grand success. The program for the entire session of the assembly has been excellent; indeed, everything considered, the best, or at least the most popular, ever given at a Chautauqua assembly held in this city. The court as to future assemblies being held here was dispelled this evening by the announcement that Beatrice would have a Chautauqua next year under the same management with the same program. Dr. Davidson, as this season, The Ariel sextet and the Smith sisters have already been engaged for next year, as have also several others who look part in this season. The receipts today were nearly $1,000, and would undoubtedly have been much larger but for the threatening aspect of the weather.

FREMONT, June 24.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The Central Chautauqua assembly will have its opening exercises this Thursday evening, June 29. C. M. Williams, president, will deliver the opening address, which will be followed by Dr. A. E. Winship of Boston and Mrs. A. W. Bates of the Fremont Normal school, will sing a solo. A very interesting and instructive program has been prepared by Roy George M. Brown. Rev. Frank Grane of Omaha will deliver the Fourth of July oration, Friday, July 1, will be Farmers day. Sen. S. W. Starr will read, Hon. Lafo Pence of Colorado and A. L. Locke, president of the National Farmers alliance, will be the speakers. July 11 will be Old farmers day, when Grand Representative J. S. Hoagland of North Platte will be the orator. July 17 will be Ancient Order of United Workmen day. Hon. J. G. Tate of Hastings will deliver the oration. July 19, recognition day. In the evening will be camp fire ghosts and banquet. The exercises will close Thursday evening with a grand concert.

Doubtless, multitudes who cannot afford the expense of visiting the World's fair, will avail themselves of this opportunity of a few weeks' vacation, full of enjoyment and physical and mental improvement.

Heavy Fall of Hail.

NEBRASKA, Neb., June 24.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Thursday evening a heavy rain passed over this country, and a mile south of this place hailstones as large as toanups fell. They were so plentiful that farmers enjoyed the luxury of ice cream frozen from hailstones.

GENERAL VAN WYCK NOT DYING.

Statements as to His Condition Very Much Exaggerated.

NEBRASKA CITY, June 24.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The statement that General Van Wyck is about to expire is an exaggeration. James Reed returned this afternoon from Lone Lodge, the general's residence, and authorizes the statement that the patient's condition remains unchanged. The reports anticipating the early demise of the ex-senator are unfounded, and have caused Mrs. Van Wyck much anxiety. The general is far from well, but his condition is by no means as serious as has been given out.

Kearney Notes and Personal.

KEARNEY, June 24.—[Special to THE BEE.]—W. H. Glenn, who has lived in Kearney for the past seventeen years, left yesterday for Mankato, Minn., and expects to make his home there.

The total assessed valuation of Buffalo county as returned by the county clerk for 1892 is $3,575,250.14. This is estimated to be about one-tenth of the real valuation and Kearney furnishes nearly one-third the entire amount. It shows an increase over last year of nearly $100,000.

A monster Fourth of July celebration is being arranged for, and one of the leading features is a game of lacrosse between the Kearney state champions and the Omaha team. Another leading feature will be a coupling exhibition between Cornelius and Mott, the champion hose couplers in the United States.

Prof. Herbert who has been leading the Midway Military band for a few months past has gone to Illinois and Prof. Carl Locke has been selected to fill the vacancy. The band will be kept up to its high standard.

Rev. G. A. Beecher was ordained at the Episcopal church last Sunday. The house was beautifully decorated and the exercises were conducted by Bishop Graves, assisted by Rev. Dr. Oliver and Rev. J. D. Skilton of Council Bluffs, O., an old classmate of Rev. Beecher.

At a session of the Board of Supervisors just closed, permission was given the village board of Shelton to call a special election next month for the purpose of voting on the question of issuing bonds in the sum of $2,000, payable to J. R. George and Thomas Turney if they build, equip and run a $15,000 hour mill. Said mill to run by water and have a capacity for manufacturing seventy-five barrels of flour per day.

A lodge of the Improved Order of Red Men was organized here last night. The tribe has thirty charter members. The degree will be given to the members of Winnebago No. 16, located at Hastings, and Grand Sachem H. S. Hotchkiss of Lincoln. The officers for the local tribe are as follows: Prophet, R. M. Hoover; sachem, George E. Ford; senior saganore, H. S. Kiefer; junior saganore, J. H. Ormsby; chief of records, E. G. Edward and keeper of wampum, O. L. Green.

Miss Emma Gilming of Thomson township was adjudged insane today, and taken to the asylum here. She is a young girl about 17 years of age, rather pretty and until about three weeks ago was considered unusually bright.

The action of the Board of Public Lands and Buildings in doing away with the publishing of the Industrial School Courier is greatly regretted by all.

Cass County W. C. T. U.

NEBRASKA, Neb., June 24.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The Cass county Women's Christian Temperance union has just closed a two days session here. The sessions have been very entertaining as well as instructive. Fine addresses were delivered by Mrs. Daley, district president, and Miss Goss, county president. The union is reported to be in a very flourishing condition in the county. Much good has been accomplished in the past year, and the outlook for the future is bright. The officers for the ensuing year are: Miss Olive Goss, Plattsmouth, president, and Miss Belle Cross, Victoria, secretary.

Grand Island Graduates' Banquet.

GRAND ISLAND, June 24.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The second annual banquet of the Grand Island High school alumni was held in the parlors of the Palmer house last night, with sixty-eight members and guests present. After an interesting musical and literary program the following officers were elected: President, Charles Seaton; first vice president, Miss Kato Mathews; second vice president, Emmor McMeans; secretary, Miss Rosa Kalls; treasurer, Miss Mary Seavy; least master, Chauncey Neitz, Prof. R. J. Barr, the principal of the school. Presented with a fine leather self-binding chair by the alumni. A banquet was served, accompanied by lively toasts.

Not Expected to Recover.

BEATRICE, June 24.—[Special to THE BEE.]—It is considered impossible for either Mr. or Mrs. Bohlott to survive the injuries which they received last night. At present both of them are very low.

The Beatrice ball team will play Wymore tomorrow.

The Gage county teachers institute will be held on the Chautauqua grounds commencing July 5 and continuing ten days. C. G. Poore of this city and H. R. Corbett of Fremont Normal school will give lectures in the evening. The principal of the school, Mrs. A. W. Bates, will be one of the lecturers.

Platte River Bridge Completed.

FREMONT, June 24.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The wagon bridge across the Platte river near this city has been completed.

The first department of the Columbus and Hooper have decided to attend the mammoth Fourth of July celebration to be held in this city. It is understood that $1,000 has been raised to purchase fireworks for the occasion. The faculty and students of the Fremont Normal school will give a cantata in Love's opera house next Monday evening under the direction of Mrs. A. W. Bates, entitled "The Heroes of '76.'"

Dorchester Commencement Exercises.

DORCHESTER, June 24.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The fourth annual commencement of the Dorchester High school was held in the Methodist Episcopal church last night. The house was filled to overflowing and many turned away. The following were the graduates: Nellie Stewart, Anna Egoff, Nora Bingham, Curtis Parker, George Johnson, Arthur J. K. Weston, Flora Armstrong, Louis Dainton, Lottie Scherzer, Harley E. Gingley.

Pleased with the T. R. Quartet.

STANBRO, Neb., June 24.—[Special to THE BEE.]—A fair audience greeted the T. R. quartet of Omaha last night, and had the excellence of the entertainment been known, the hall in this city would not have held the people. The quartet was aided by E. B. Graham, editor of the Standard, who gave variety to the program by interesting chaff talks which kept the audience in a continual uproar. Mrs. Conrad was the accompanist.

Illness of Judge Holcomb.

KEARNEY, Neb., June 24.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Judge Silas Holcomb, who has been under the weather for some time, was taken worse during the session of court this week and was finally forced to adjourn court and go home. Judge Holcomb's illness is the result of overwork and his friends hope that a rest will rapidly restore him to health.

A. O. U. W. Picnic.

SEWARD, Neb., June 24.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The Ancient Order of United Workmen lodges of Seward county held their annual picnic yesterday in Roberts' grove. Every lodge in the county was fully represented, and hundreds of citizens spent the day there. G. J. Vandyke, grand lecturer of the grand lodge, delivered a fine address in the afternoon.

State Board of Pharmacy Meeting.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., June 24.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The State Board of Pharmacy will meet at Grand Island August 9 for the examination of applicants for registration as pharmacists in the state of Nebraska. ### That Was All.

Browning, King & Co.'s Monthly: Mrs. Cawker (herself)—I'd like to know why a masculine typewriter wouldn't suit you? Why did you hire a girl? Cawker (wee-wee)—I wanted to have a woman about me that I could dictate to.

Under the act of the recent session affecting lands around the salt lake property, which is to be sold to the lessees after August 1, 1893, subject to the school land laws, to be sold to the lessees after that date, but there will be no public sale. All of this land is located in Lancaster county, about 1,000 acres of it being in the salt basin west of this city and lying around the salt lake property, which is located thereon. The projectors of the lake enterprise now hold the leases for this land, having purchased them from former holders thereof. The land will be reappraised and the holders of leases will surrender them and receive purchase deeds upon the payment of the appraised value.

There have heretofore been two acts authorizing the absolute sale of salt lake lands in this county. One was enacted February 15, 1892, and under it 19,355 acres were sold in 1892 and 1879, bringing from $5 to $7 per
