Cupid Plays a Prominent Part in the Doings of the Swells.

EVENTS SOCIALLY DURING THE PAST WEEK

Closing Parties of the Winter Dancing Clubs-Surprises that Were in Store for Friends-Chat of Well Known Men and Women.

Last week was a week of weddings, Cupid being entirely en evidence, to the delight of hundreds who were in attendance upon the interesting ceremonies, which were performed by the cloth of all denominations. The marriage of Miss Laura Hoagland and Dr. Summers was particularly a beautiful nuptial ceremony, the popularity of the bride and groom calling out the swells in large numbers. The marriage of Miss Adler and Mr. Alexander was the particular event in Jewish circles this season, the prominence very pretty effect produced at the latter wedding, the couple standing underneath a floral bell made of bride roser, the clapper of which was an incandescent light. The banquet which followed the Alexander-Adler wedding was in keeping with the lavish floral display, and the toasts were unusually felicitous.

Miss Collins, after considerable thought, has will go to Europe and will chaperone Miss Wakeley and Miss Emity Wakeley on a tour of the continent. It was thought that after Wakeley and Miss Emily Wakeley on a tour of the continent. It was thought that after the settlement of her mother's estate, Miss Collins would take up her permanent residence in Europe, but this she says is not correct, that she is essentially American, and she has grown somewhat tired of foreign customers. Miss Margaret Stanton Westren, Miss Josephine Drake, Miss Marion Hughes. has grown somewhat tired of foreign customs, living in pensions and dining in cafes. She longs for the comforts of home and will only visit Europe semi-occasionally. Miss Collins' personally conducted party will leave for New York May 24, and sail for Europe on the Amsterdam June 1. The litherary has been carefully planned as one might expect from the knowledge which Miss Collins pos-sesses of continental Europe. They will spend a month in Paris, viewing the principal sights and making excursions in the environs. Versailles, Sevres, St. Cloud, and the chateau and forest at Fontainbleau. This is the season when the French village fetes are in pro-gress, and the country folk are all merrymaking. The month of July will be devoted to Switzerland and the snow Alps, Neuchatel, Berne, Interlakin, Brienz, Lucerne, the Rigi eneva, with excursions by steamer to the historic castle of Chillon and other points of interest. In August they will cross over the St. Gotthard route to the Swiss lakes, Como. Lugard and Maggiore, where the warmes weather will be spent among some of th most beautiful scenery in Europe. Septembe will be devoted to Italy, Milan, Verona Siena, Bologne, Florence, Rome Naples, Pompeii, Vesuvius, Sorrento, tellammare di Stabia and the Island of Capri. a picturesque little rocky point in the sea which yearly attracts artists from all points of the world. The choir of Kountze Memorial church will ender an antiphonal service Sunday evening Besides the regular choir in the organ loft there will be a chorus of some forty voices in the rear gallery to sing responses and a quartet in the tower. It is generally con-orded that the antiphonal is the most ancient form of church music, the Psalms of "the sweet singer of Israel," mostly arranged for responsive rendering.

The removal of Mr. Jay Northrop from Omaha is a loss to musical circles as well as social. Mrs. Northrop and family left last week for Rock Springs, Wyo., to join the head of the family. The pleasant home at 1518 Georgia avenue is occupied by Mr. A. B. King and family.

Prof. Kratz has contracted with the managers of the Chautauqua at Madison lake. South Dakota, to give the musical instruction there during the next session of the school.

A Philadelphia exchange says, enthusias tically: 'Manager Zimmerman has perfected arrangements for the lighting of the Chestnut Street opera house by electricity. entire auditorium will have new fixtures and the lobbies will be made as bright as day." It would be a novelty to fine a first-class heater in the west not lighted by elec-that Verdi has set about writing an opera on the subject of Shakespeare's "The Tempest," which will bear the same relation to the play that the operas "Othello" and "Falstaff" do to the plays bearing those names.

ENTHUSIASM UNBOUNDED!

Kirk's Representative at the Mil of Mr. Kirk.

3,181 PEOPLE REPORT FAVORABLY

After Having Tried Kirk's New Discovery.

The sale for Kirk's Rain Water Maker in Omaha amounted to over 1,200 pack ages yesterday.

"How can you account for such a demand for a new prepartion?" said a prominent gentleman yesterday to a reporter. "I can only account for it in one way: I have been detailed on this business for my newspaper, on behalf of Jas. S. Kirk & Co., ever since they first came to Omaha, and that this preparation contains such merit that the people simply feel that they must have

"Oh, no," said the reporter, "the sale does not seem to be limited to any one particular locality, but I find it in all sections of the city-a universal and enormous demand. That Mr. Kirk is honest is now proven; that he is generous is shown from the fact that the price of one of the large 2-pound pack ages of Rain Water Maker has been put at the mere nominal figure of 25 cents." Paul Meyen, distributing clerk at the ostoffice, residing at 1452 South Sixteenth street, and an expert on water. having experimented on all kinds of water, especially the alkali waters found in the west, says: "My wife and I have made some thorough tests of Kirk's 'Rain Water Maker' and find it. to be the finest thing I ever saw. We followed the directions explicitly and obtained the most astonishing results. We have had a wide experience in washing delicate fabrics with delicate colors, and could never find anything to prevent the colors from running before without using expensive chemical preparations. The 'Rain Water Maker' is a grand invention. It makes the water as soft as the softest rain water and makes the clothes very white and soft, and in my estimation and according to the thorough tests we have given it, will do just what is claimed for it The people are fortunate to have such a meritorious preparation placed upon the market within the range of the poorest families. I could not consistently do otherwise than recommend it to every body. I shall not use anything else as long as I can purchase this prepara

Soft and Beautiful. Mrs. S. K. Shinn, 1713 Chicago street: 'I have tested Kirk's 'Rain Water Maker' and find it is a most meritorious preparation. It breaks the water nicely and is just what the people want in this city. The clothes come out of the wash soft and beautiful. I certainly can but recommend it to everybody."

RECOMMENDS IT TO EVERYBODY. Mrs. Palmater, wife of W. Palmater, residing at Twenty-second and Maple streets and employed by the Bradstreet's agency: "Kirk's 'Rain Water Maker' is a grand preparation. It makes the clothes white and soft, and the hardest water is soon made as soft as rain water. It is just the thing for housekeepers, and I have no hesitancy in recommending it to all."

IT IS THE FINEST PREPARATION Have Ever Been Able to Obtain .- So

Saya Mrs. Freedman, wife of H. Freedman, adjuster for the Boston Store and resid ing at the Drexel hotel: "I have tried the preparation known as Kirk's 'Rain Water Maker' and am highly pleased with it. It breaks the water very nicely and makes it quite soft. I used it in my bath and the results were most gratifying. It is the finest preparation I have been able to obtain for that purpose. I take much pleasure in recommending it to others."
