Wednesday's Elump Brings About a Marked Reaction.

WHEAT GOES UP MORE THAN A CENT

Corn and Oats Rise a Good Fraction Each and Provisions Advance Also. Statistical News Favorable.

CHICAGO, April 8.-All the grain and provision markets were firm today, closing as a rule at substantial advances. The strength was more the result of a natural reaction from yesterday's slump, although the statistical-news was generally favorable. May wheat closed 1%c higher, corn %c higher and oats 1447%c higher. Provision advanced 25475c. Yesterday's decline in wheat appeared to have brought out all that was for sale be-66c and buyers had to pay something over the figures mentioned both for May and July deliveries during the greater part of today's session. Whatever reason was given as the cause which induced shorts to cover wheat previously sold, purchases of that sort constituted nine-tenths of the buying done in the forenoon. The trading was neither active nor of large volume. May opened at from 60%c to 66%c, compared May opened at from 60% to 66% c, compared with yesterday's closing price of 65% c, improved to 66% c and declined from that to 65% the latter figures and rose once more to 66% c. It began to improve after touching the latter figures and rose once more to 66% c and 66c, being more inclined toward the upper than the lower edge of that range during the time mentioned. Rumors of some country milling demand for spring wheat were given as one reason for the generally improved tone which railled wheat again after its first drop from around 66% for May to 65% c. Liverpool, while lower at the opening, was not as weak as Chicago had been the day before and had already recovered 5% of a id decline before trading started here. Chicago receipts were fifteen cars. Minneapolis and Duluth received 264 cars, against 587 cars a week ago and 229 cars the corresponding day of the year before. The Chicamatt Price Current ventured to estimate the coming crop, should it maintain present conditions, at from 30,000,000 bu, to 310,000,000 bu. Atlantic port clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 225,000 bu. New York reported husiness done for export, 100,000 bu., it was said for prompt, and 100,000 bu. The reported export business, moderate as it was kept the market firm to the close. May about half an hour from the close sold at 67c and July at 65% . July sold at 63% carlier in the day when May at the same time was bringing only 65% During the last few minutes enough reaction occurred to bring May down to 66% cand July to 66% caring prices.

Corn was also somewhat stronger, influence of the close in the both of the close. The country the country the country of the close when the country of the close when the country of the with yesterday's closing price of 65%c, imwas also somewhat stronger, influ-Corn was also somewhat stronger, indu-enced partially by the better tone in wheat, but chiefly by the heavy rains in the corn belt, which have raised the presumption of hight receipts. Shorts were good buyers. Exports amounted to 710,000 bu. May opened about 36 higher at 2336, advanced to 2356 and closed firm at 234c. Shorts covered in the oats market and Shorts covered in the oats market and were mainly responsible for the firm feelwere mainly responsible for the firm feeling, which was the most important feature of the session. Sympathy with wheat and continued unfavorable wet weather were also factors in the advance. The aggregate business was larger than usual. Exports were 41,000 bu. May opened 4c higher at 16%c/16%c, advanced to 16%c and closed at 16%c.

Provisions, although starting weak, soon firmed up and joined in the general advance, There was some further liquidation by commission houses early, but an imvances, There was some further indudation by commission houses early, but an improved demand both from packers and English houses. Prices gradually advanced. At the close May pork was about 2c higher at $8.1048.124; May lard a shade higher at $4.07444.10, and May ribs 5c higher at $4.4714. Estimated receipts Friday: Wheat, 8 cars; corn, 180 cars; oats, 185 cars; hogs.

for being drunk and disorderly. Tuttle has a powerful pair of lungs, and his ianguage at times is not of the cholcest. After half an hour's exercise of his vocal powers he succeeded in awakening all the rest of Omaha's wicked who were behind the bars, and he was at length stowed away in the dark cell.

Yesterday afternoon Tuttle sobered up sufficiently to go before Judge Gordon, and he was discharged with the injunction to sin no more. An hour later he came in on the patrol wagon with four officers holding him down, and emitting more noise than a calliope. Just to demonstrate the fact Tuttle was capable of being drunk and disorderly he was placed in a cell directly beneath Judge Gordon's court. The attaches of the police court were regaled with a sample of what life might be in an insane asylum. Tuttle will probably be given the limit by the police judge and sent to the county jail.

Rash put in most of his time weeping and praying in his cell in the jail last night, and when questioned by the jailers would say nothing except that "they could not hang a crazy man," and that he expected to go free after trial. He will be taken to Wayne county this morning.
