Boehler Hurls Good Game for Oilers

Stokes, New Addition to Omaha's Pitching Staff, on Mound for Locals—Herman Gets Homer.

Tulsa, Okla., April 19.—Boehler was in rare form today and had the Omaha Buffaloes guessing most of the time. Yank Davis' home run with the bases full in the seventh decided the game. The teams split even on the series.

Shade Wins Decision Over Local Welter

California Boxer Outpoints and Outboxes "Bud" Logan in Ten-Round Bout—Conley Beats Ammons.

By RALPH WAGNER.

DAVID SHADE, California boxer-fighter, whom Leo P. Flynn, vice manager, calls one-half welterweight champion of the world, won a referee's decision over "Bud" Logan of this city at the Auditorium Tuesday night in the main event of the Douglas county Legionistic carnival.

Every known variety of fistic combat from the guys who play slap tag with each other to the plain assault and battery type with slaughter-house trimmings was displayed in the punch dispensary and a pleasant time was had by all. "Bud" Logan's showing against the clever Shade was a pleasing one and the veteran Omaha welter gave just as neat an exhibition of boxing as could be expected, but he lacked the punch to pile up points.

Shade is a sweet hitter and a dandy boxer. The Californian has a piston-like left jab that found its mark more than once on Logan's map. Shade proved to be a hornet during the 10 rounds he was in the ring with the local lad and stung "Bud" with some awfully wallops. During the latter rounds of the bout Logan was steely-eyed, but going and chuck full of gameness.

Logan was very much himself during the first and second and displayed a defense that sort of puzzled the westerner. In the second stanza Shade shot his left to Logan's eye and soon the purple started trickling down the local lad's face.

In the third session, David got through Buster's defense and started showering lefts and rights to Logan's face and midsection. The Omaha welter took an unmerciful body being in this round, but never once did he whimper or back away. He was shooting a stiff left hook to Shade's jaw that was doing the firm of Flynn and Shade no good at all.

At times too, Logan would lurch head with Shade and give as good as was sent in the close rallies. Besides this, Shade was blocking well and this shunted many of Buddy's best blows.

In the latter part of the fourth round, Shade had crossed a right and played a tattoo on Logan's jaw with his left, the local boxer started swinging his dukes in the direction of one Mister Shade and propelled them so fast that the westerner started retreating. Logan planted his left under Shade's chin and then buried his right in his opponent's mid-section. The clever Shade looked puzzled as he stroled to his corner at the end of the round which went to the Omaha.

Socks Logan On Ear. Shade got his light heavyweight artillery guns to toting in the fifth round. He started raining down on Logan's head with his left and right, splitting that member. He gave Logan a stiff jabbing, though the Omaha man kept pines and fought back, although Shade made him miss quite often.

In the seventh Logan staged his best round. He beat Shade at his own game in this session and defended himself in such fashion that the Californian was unable to pile up many points during the round. Logan was best at fighting, since Shade's base was Patrice, Gloan, center field; and Lewis, right field. Any team desiring games call A. Kaiman at Jackson 1924.

Reeves Disqualified. Omaha Bee Leased Wire. New York, April 19.—Jack Reeves of California was disqualified in the 10th round of his bout with Young Bob Fitzsimmons for hitting low at the Pioneer Athletic club last night. The bout was scheduled for 12 rounds and up to the time that Reeves was set down the going was very even. Reeves had been cautioned several times before the referee, Eddy Purdie, took final action and stopped the contest, giving the title to Fitz.

American Jock Rides Paragon to Victory in English Classic. Epsom, England, April 19.—(By A. P.)—Sir Ernest Page's Paragon, by Radiump, out of Quinescence, ridden by the American jockey, Archibald, won the city and suburban stakes of $21,000 here today. Sir Henry Bird's March was second and James White's Granely third. Ten horses ran.

Roy Conley of Casper, Wyo., was given the referee's decision over Archie Ammons of Marshalltown, Ia., at the end of ten rounds. Conley went after the Iowan like a man trying to kill a steer with a pair of brass knuckles. Ammons fought nobly to hold Conley at arm's length, but the swarthy boy was as persistent as a ticket-moother and mauled and battered Ammons around the ring until if Archie's face hadn't previously been considerably spoiled, it would have been a total loss.

Rozgall Wins. In the seventh, eighth and ninth rounds Ammons displayed some fast footwork, stepping in and pecking Conley on the nose and stepping out again. "Young" Rozgall, South Omaha pride, won on a technical knockout from Walter McCarthy of Blue Island, in the fourth round of their four-round engagement. Rozgall, using a straight left, beat his opponent into a pulp and floored him twice.

McCarthy was on his feet but raggy when Referee Shea stopped the affair. Both fighters were covered with blood. Ed Hunt of Omaha kayoed Pete Jordan in the fourth round of their scheduled six-round preliminary over New York 2 to 10. Jordan started like a house afire, but was forced to retreat under Hunt's rain of piston-like rights and lefts.

Scrambled Sports

OW that the baseball season has been sent on its merry way, the golf season hereabouts is due to get going. The Omaha Field club and Happy Hollow club are preparing for busy programs of events this season, while the Omaha Country club is side-tracking its annual program of events because of the annual Transmississippi tournament the week of July 10.

The annual city golf tournament probably will be held during the latter part of June, according to Sam Reynolds, city king of the club swatters.

Wonder who Johnny Creeley, former manager of "Kid" Schlaifer, will discover next? Recently Johnny found Pete Jordan, local boxer, who heard the birdies sing in the Auditorium last night, and decided that Jordan was of championship timber.

Creeley, it will be remembered, also "discovered" Jim Jensen, who took the count at the hands of Johnny Lee.

If golf continues to lure baseball
