Problems That Perplex

Answered by BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

It Was Too Sudden.
"Dear Miss Fairfax: I am a young man of 21 and have been working in a place for the last four years with a girl with whom I have become friends. I have learned to love this girl, but did not have the nerve to tell her. But one day I made up my mind and told her, but she said 'that's what they all say.' What is your opinion of a girl like that?"

CONSTANT READER.
She must be quite a "vamp," eh? But then she may have thought you were only spoofing her. You see, there ought to be a little preliminary work, such as an invitation here and there, before you jump at her out of a clear business hour to declare your burning passion.

Don't Question Him.
"Dear Miss Fairfax: I am in love with a fellow but do not know whether or not he loves me. Advise me as to how to find out without asking him, or how to win his love."

ANXIETY.
Asking him would be the worst course you could pursue. He would have to say at least that he liked you, and you would have no further advanced. A young man's actions usually prove his heartfelt devotion. He would prefer your society to other girls, and he would, in all probability, show you many other little unmistakable attentions.

R. E.: Cleanliness is the most important feature in the care of perspiring feet. Not only must one exercise extreme cleanliness in the care of the feet but in the stockings and shoes as well. The feet must be bathed daily and stockings should be changed every day. A 25 per cent solution of aluminum chloride in distilled water is a good remedy. Apply for three nights, then once a week. Or dust with powdered alum or baking soda, putting some in the stockings and shoes daily.

Another remedy for perspiration is to wash the feet night and morning in lukewarm water and castile soap; rinse well and dry. Then apply freely of the following solution: Alcohol, one pint; salicylic acid, two drams.

Cold feet are caused from poor circulation. Foot and ankle exercises, also walking, will greatly help to stimulate the circulation. A cold plunge or a sponge bath is also good, but this should be followed by a vigorous rubbing with a Turkish towel.

Joe: The man of character, ambition and sturdy principle is not often what women term the ideal lover.

The hard-working, straight-forward, "good citizen" is generally overlooked. Proceeds will be given to St. John's High school.

ness of making a living and a place for himself in the world. So he hasn't much chance to study the gentle art of love making. He doesn't study the way to turn a compliment or a heart.

The man who has respect for women and himself can't feel that it is worth while to spend his days studying methods of stimulating emotion. He isn't obsessed by a desire to feed his own vanity or to appeal to his jaded appetites.

The worthwhile man likes folks. He wants friendship from the world. He demands respect. He is simple and honest and direct in his dealings.

When an earnest, ambitious, fine-principled man who is devoted to his mother and sisters meets women, he approaches them simply, honestly and as frankly as he deals with men.

Girls might do well to remember this. It is likely to help them in their judgments of the sturdy dependable soul who doesn't make pretty speeches, but would probably make a wonderful husband.

The ideal lover is generally going nowhere—but on to the next love. He isn't the right man. He doesn't want to be. He wants to be all things to all women, never anything to one.

Dramatic Club.

St. John's Dramatic club will present a comedy Thursday evening at Creighton auditorium. Proceeds will be given to St. John's High school.

Plant a Nasturtium Window Box

K.: If you wish to plant a window box that will require little care use nasturtiums. The climbing variety makes an excellent window box. These are thrifty and can be grown in crimson, maroon, orange, white, rose—rich, gorgeous colors. They bloom from June to frost. Do not use rich soil, as the leaves grow so profusely they are apt to cover the flowers. "Lobb's" nasturtiums are good for window boxes. The seeds should germinate in from 8 to 15 days.—Jean True.

New Columbia Records

When the floor doesn't count

Put on that dance number, let it go full tilt, and the floor can be the best in the world or the stubble grass of a Western lawn—it won't make any difference. For, oh, how that music can make your feet go! They won't take time off to rest.

Popular orchestras, that dancing couples flock to dance to, make their records exclusively for Columbia. On the New Process Columbia Record every note the boys play is reproduced so clearly that you might think they were right there.

If you want to know what folks are taking to in dance music, follow the crowd and you will see them going in the doors of Columbia Dealers and walking out with a large bundle of dance records under their arms. They know that Columbia has the newest and best tunes there are to dance to.

Join the trail of Columbia fans and keep up with the music they are dancing to now. Hear the new records at any Columbia shop and see how hard it is to make your feet behave.
