Argus Leader, 29: "George Listman, who was for a long time pressman for Brown & Saenger, left this morning for Wells, Minn. He will be messenger on the Milwaukee from Wells to Mankato. His family will remain in Sioux Falls for the present." Mr. Listman, it will be remembered was messenger on the Bristol branch for a year or more and residing in Madison. He left ten months ago when the service was reduced.

The Minneapolis Journal gives it out that the Ringling Bros. now exhibiting their great circus are negotiating for the exhibition building there for the winter headquarters; but we are informed by Mr. E. Kramer of this city that while in Chicago he talked with the managers of the Ringling Bros. show who showed him the contracts made by them for hay, quarters, etc., to winter in Chicago, instead of Baraboo, Wis., hereafter.

Mr. Jacob Bergstreser, of Chester township, father of the Bergstreser brothers of this county is lying very ill at the residence of his son, C. A. Bergstreser of this city. He came here about a week ago on a short visit but was taken ill with an old kidney trouble which has bothered him more or less for several years and has now developed in a very acute and painful form. As the old gentleman is 78 years of age and is failing quite fast fears are seriously entertained of a fatal termination of his present illness.

Frost Persons Non Grata.
BROOKINGS, S. D., Aug. 30.—The last phase of the Agricultural college trouble has just cropped out in the peremptory demand served upon Lieutenant Frost, U. S. A., for his resignation as instructor of the cadet battalion. As the military instructor is usually assigned to duty by the war department, and is recalled or relieved by the same power, Lieutenant Frost has submitted the matter to the war department. Frost is known not to be personally liked by the ascendant faction, though he is admitted by all to be a good officer and a gentleman.

Reducing Running Expenses.
WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Aug. 30.—The council committee on retrenchment has handed in a report calculated to reduce the running expenses of the city almost 40 per cent. They favored cutting down fire and police departments one-half and chopping off other city officers' heads, including the assistant city clerk, assistant fire chief, street commissioner and others.

Disregarded Revenue Laws.
PARK RAPIDS, Minn., Aug. 30.—Revenue officers dropped into town during the day, and the result was heavy fines for Barney Boyer, Emil Stangler and Baumgardner & Schuman for selling liquors in too large quantities. Cutler & Blood, druggists, were also fined for not sufficiently defacing stamps on cigar boxes.

PLENTY OF CARS.
Railways Doing Well in Meeting the Heavy Demand.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Aug. 30.—The Great Northern and the Northern Pacific companies are crowded to their utmost with shipments of wheat to Minneapolis and Duluth. Tuesday a train of 37 cars passed through this city loaded with wheat. There were 9 cars from Minn., 10 from Anokich and 18 from Manvel. Very little goes into the elevators. Everything seems to be going eastward, as the farmers want money. The railway companies are well prepared, and farmers are not complaining at the accommodations afforded them. There are plenty of cars sidetracked at every station.

CONFIDENCE MISPLACED.
Many Working People Lose Their Hard-earned Earnings.

MARSHFIELD, Wis., Aug. 30.—There was much surprise among Marshfield people when it was reported that Theodore Springhorn, in the real estate, loan and insurance business, was short in his accounts. A great many of the working people of the city have been in the habit of giving him their earnings to loan for them, having faith that he would invest to them to best advantage. As nearly as can be ascertained the discrepancy amounts to about $6,000, but that amount represents all the savings of a great many poor people. Springhorn has disappeared.

No Red Flag to Wave.
CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—The red flag which was to grace the procession to be made Labor Day in honor of Keir Hardie, the English Socialist, will not appear, as Mayor Swift has issued positive orders against its being carried through the streets.
