LOCAL BRIEFINGS.

Wheat 45 cents; flax, 68.
All hail the memory of George Washington!
Alex. Cameron of Artesian was an east bound passenger for Luverne, Minn., this morning.
Mrs. Mosier and daughter went to Flandrau for a week's visit, thence the latter will join her husband at Durand, Wis.
John Gregor departed for Wells, Minn., whence, Monday, he will return to Alaska to the gold fields on the Yukon river.
The Harvard Quartette which gave a very delightful entertainment to a large audience here last evening, departed for the east this morning.
Mrs. J. I. Hubbell departed for Sioux Falls to-day and Monday will return to Vermillion to sing at revival services in Rev. C. E. Hager's church.
Prof. McClenon expects to complete arrangements to have the Remenyi concert company appear here under the auspices of the public schools about the end of March.
Mrs. O. C. Wing, of Brookings came down on the train from the north and joined her husband here in paying their son, who is a Normal student, a visit until Monday.
Mrs. Lou White gave a tea party last evening to a number of lady friends in honor of Mrs. Drew, Mr. White's sister, now her guest. It was a very sociable and pleasant affair.
Chas. McGill presented Mrs. McGill this morning with an elegantly finished upright piano of the Mehlin, New York and Chicago make, purchased of Dyer Bros., St. Paul, Minn.
Arrivals on the evening train were John Wadden, J. W. Davison, Dr. F. N. Palmer and wife. The latter report one of their little girls getting better, but the other quite sick yet.
The revival services at the Presbyterian church are largely attended and gaining in interest. Services every evening next week at 7:30 p. m. Day meetings after Monday at 3:30 p. m. Rev. J. M. L. Eckard, will assist for the next two weeks.
"Legal Holiday" was the legend written across the locked doors of the county offices to-day with the solitary exception of Treasurer Fleming's who was so pressed upon by men willing to pay taxes that he had to open up to them.
A. W. Holdridge has just returned from the east with the information that there will be four home-seekers' excursions from all points west of Chicago to Madison, S. D.; as follows: March 10, April 7 and 21 and May 5. Tickets are good for 21 days at one fare for the round trip plus $2.
Mrs. Hettie Downie, Grand Worthy Matron of the O. E. S., this state, arrived on the train from the north this afternoon and was taken in charge by a delegation of local star chapter, Mrs. A. M. McCallister and Mrs. J. M. Preston, until the chapter meets in the evening. All members of the chapter are requested to be present.

Mrs. J. B. Jones was taken very severely ill at noon to-day with her old enemy--heart trouble. It is hardly known yet how she will come out of it. This morning she was feeling quite well, and at the instance of Rev. J. P. Jenkins, the Harvard Quartette went to the residence of Mrs. Jones and gave a short but very beautiful concert to the invalid and family. The latter feel very grateful to the reverend gentleman for his kindly offices in this matter and it is to be highly commended on the part of the Quartette.

IT WILL DO GOOD

Appalling Catastrophe at Johannesburg Will Smooth Over Difficulties

And Lead to a Much Better Understanding Between Boers and Uitlanders.

President Kruger Elected President of the Relief Committee.

JOHANNESBURG, Feb. 22.--The latest estimates place the number of deaths from the explosion of 20 tons of dynamite on a switch at Viedendorp, on Wednesday evening, at 120 and about 400 persons were more or less seriously injured. A number of the wounded have succumbed to their injuries. The white victims were chiefly of lower class Boers. Whole families of white people were wiped out. President Kruger arrived here from Pretoria. In a speech he congratulated the inhabitants upon the splendid manner in which they have sunk all race feuds in the common endeavor to relieve the suffering. He added that he earnestly trusted that the good feeling which had arisen from a common sorrow may have permanent results, and Lead to a Much Better Feeling in the future between the Boers and the Uitlanders. The president's remarks have had a good effect upon the foreign population, and it is believed that the reforms in the internal administration of the Transvaal which have so long been advocated by Uitlanders will soon be inaugurated in a form which will give general satisfaction. President Kruger has been chosen president of the relief committee, and he is directing the work of clearing the razed ground at Viedendorp and sheltering the thousands of people to have been rendered homeless by the terrible calamity. All the corrugated iron available is being sent here, and the work of erecting huts for the homeless has already commenced. The popular subscriptions raised in behalf of the distressed people already amounts to over $500,000.

PASSED MANY FORGED CHECKS

A St. Paul Young Man Arrested in Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 22.--While trying to pass a forged check in the dry goods store of T. L. Kelly & Co., Louis Johnson, whose home is at St. Paul, was arrested on charge of forgery. Johnson was with another young man, who, however, escaped before the police arrived. Johnson has made a confession. He says he is 20 years of age and several months ago became dissatisfied with his home. He ran away and has since been passing forged checks. He says he has several victims at Austin and Winona, Minn. He had in his possession three checks for various small sums on St. Paul and Milwaukee banks, signed W. A. Fuller. Blank check books were also in his possession.

We must have help. We pay men and women $10 to $15 per week for any home work. No books or peddling. Steady employment guaranteed. Send stamp for work and particulars at once. Hermann & Seymour, 213 South Sixth street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Quick in effect, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, scaly skin eruptions quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Applied to burns, scalds, old sores, it is magical in effect. Always cures piles.

MAHER AND FITZSIMMONS.

What the Two Pugilists Have Accomplished in Their Careers.

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.--Peter Maher was born in Galway, Ireland, March 16, 1869, and is 5 feet 11 1/2 inches tall. His first public encounter was with Martin O'Hara whom he defeated in two rounds in 1888. He beat Tim O'Doherty in three rounds and boxed a four-round draw with Robert Hair, amateur champion of England, and knocked out John Seenan in five rounds. He won John L. Sullivan's competition in Dublin, defeating Jack Wallis, Tow Walters and Larry Drew in three round bouts. He met Peter Jackson in Dublin in 1889. They were to have boxed four rounds but Maher only boxed two. He knocked out Alf O'wman in six rounds and Gus Lambert in one round. He arrived in New York, Oct. 7, 1891, and defeated Davis, in four rounds, Tim Daly in one, Jack Fallon in two and Jack Smith and Sailor Brown in one round each in the same evening. Beat Joe Godfrey in one round in 1892, and scored a victory over Val Flood. Maher was beaten by Fitzsimmons at New Orleans, but since then he has knocked out "Coffee Cooler" Craig and Steve O'Donnell. He has never whipped a really first class man. One of his worst exhibitions was with Joe Goddard before the Coney Island Athletic club, Dec. 6, 1892, Joe knocking him out in three rounds.

Robert Fitzsimmons.

Robert Fitzsimmons was born in Cornwall, Eng., June 4, 1862. His height is 5 feet 11 1/2 inches. His first fighting was done in New Zealand, in 1880, when he won the amateur championship by defeating five men in a tournament managed by Jem Mace.

BOB FITZSIMMONS.

One of his opponents on this occasion was Herbert Slade. His more noted fights were as follows: With Jim Hall, at Sydney, Feb. 20, 1890, four rounds, lost; with Jack Dempsey at New Orleans, Jan. 14, 1891, 13 rounds, won; with Peter Maher at New Orleans, March 2, 1892, 12 rounds, won; with Joe Godfrey at Philadelphia, May 7, 1892, one round, won; with Jim Hall at New Orleans, March 8, 1893, four rounds, won; with Joe Choynski at Boston, June 17, 1894, five rounds, draw; with Dan Creedon, New Orleans, Sept. 26, 1894, won.

EL PASO, Tex.--Fitzsimmons knocked Maher out in first round by right hand blow on the jaw.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggist handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills.
FRANK SMITH.

Soothing, healing, cleansing, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the enemy to sores, wounds and piles, which it never fails to cure. Stops itching and burning. Cures chapped lips and cold-sores in two or three hours.

Nez Perce, Potlatch, Palouse.

These are names of three great agricultural and fruit growing districts in Idaho and Washington reached by the Northern Pacific Railroad.

They each adjoin the other, are similar in products, climate and character, and together form a region for the home-seeker hard to equal. The Palouse region has long been noted for its marvelous grain production. It is to the Pacific Coast what the Red River Valley is to Minnesota and North Dakota.

The Potlatch country is like unto the Palouse, and adjoins it on the east.

The Nez Perce region lies south of the others and has until recently been a part of a great Indian reservation, 500,000 acres of it have been thrown open to settlement and its lands can be bought at cheap prices and on favorable terms. Write to CHAS. S. FEE, General Passenger Agent, Northern Pacific Railroad, St. Paul, Minn., for folder and rates.
