A WARM WELCOME

Great Demonstration on the Occasion of the President's Visit to Nashville.

His Speech at the Exposition Grounds Received With Much Enthusiasm.

Mrs. McKinley Receives an Ovation of Her Own--The Exercises.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 12.—President McKinley and party arrived at the Union station, this city at 7:30 a. m., and were met by Major J. W. Thomas, president of the Tennessee Centennial exposition, and the members of the exposition executive committee. After cordial greetings had been extended to the visitors, they were taken in carriages to the Maxwell House, where breakfast was served.

At 10 o'clock Governor Taylor of Tennessee and Governor Bushnell of Ohio, accompanied by their staffs, called upon the president. Mrs. Van Leer Kirkman, president of the Woman's Board of the exposition, also called upon President and Mrs. McKinley and party.

Confederate Veterans Guards of Honor. Leaving the hotel at 11 o'clock, the party arrived at the exposition grounds three-quarters of an hour later. The streets along the route were densely crowded, and many houses were beautifully decorated in honor of the occasion. The weather was delightful, though very warm. Accompanying the president and party were Governors Taylor and Bushnell and their staffs, Mayor McCarthy of Nashville and Mayor Caldwell of Cincinnati, President Thomas and the executive committee of the exposition. A detachment of ex-Confederate veterans acted as a guard of honor.

The procession was greeted with cheers from the thousands of people who lined the streets. While the procession was on its way, a salute of 25 guns was fired.

Entering the exposition grounds, the party proceeded to the auditorium under the escort of the centennial guards, the centennial chimes being rung for the first time as they marched up the broad avenue.

Exactly at noon, President McKinley walked down the main aisle, on his arm the stately Mrs. Van Leer Kirkman, president of the woman's board. The president was greeted with hearty cheers, and so were Secretaries Sherman, Alger, Gary, Wilson and the other distinguished guests and their accompanying ladies.

President Thomas was very brief, but he extended the heartiest of welcomes to the president.

Mr. Thomas then introduced Governor Taylor of Tennessee as "our Bob." His appearance was the signal for loud cheers, and his witty allusions provoked much laughter.

Governor Taylor was followed by Hon. W. T. McCarthy, mayor of Nashville, who added to the welcomes given, and he in turn by Senator W. T. Clarke, president of the Ohio centennial commission.

After a musical interlude, Governor Bushnell of Ohio was introduced, his bow being followed by a flattering reception in which the ladies joined with hands and handkerchiefs.

An Ovation to Mrs. McKinley.

When Governor Bushnell was in the middle of his speech vigorous cheers from the rear of the auditorium heralded the approach of a distinguished personage, and the roar became deafening as Mrs. McKinley was recognized. She came slowly down the center aisle, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Saxton, and Mrs. L. E. Akon of Nashville, and smiled pleasantly as the president hurried to the platform steps and gave her his arm, conducting her to a seat by his side and immediately in front of Secretary Porter and wife. There could be no doubt as to the place this gentle woman holds in the hearts of all Americans. The vast audience cheered until it seemed tired out, but commenced again with renewed vigor, when a large bunch of fragrant roses was handed to Mrs. McKinley, who bowed her acknowledgments. When the applause that followed Governor Bushnell's peroration had subsided, President Thomas introduced the great figure of the occasion, and Mr. McKinley's face lit up as the audience rose en masse and shouted out cheer after cheer.

The president's address was devoted mainly to a review of the progress of the state of Tennessee during the 101 years it had been a member of the Union.

Applause was frequent during the speech and hearty at all times, but it reached a climax when references to the preservation of the union were made. No more loyal demonstration was ever made in any state or section of the Union than that which followed reference to the event that helped to make this celebration memorable. At the conclusion of McKinley's speech, a hickory cane, unadorned but sturdy and made from wood grown on the Hermitage, was presented to the president by J. M. Dickinson, on behalf of the Ladies Hermitage association.

The ceremonies being concluded, the president and party went to luncheon at the West Side club, on the grounds in front of the administration building.

An Italian Cyclone.

ROME, June 12.—Dispatches from Verona announce that a terrible cyclone accompanied by hail, devastated the valley of Caprino. All the crops, including the mulberry crop, were destroyed, entailing a great loss of silk worms.

Shot His Sister.

DEVILS LAKE, N. D., June 12.—Pat Gibbeny, aged 9, accidentally shot his 4-year-old sister, the ball entering the right shoulder and passing through both lungs and out of the left side. The girl is still living, and may recover.

DYNAMITE WAS USED

Attempt to Kill Governor Smith of the Leavenworth Home.

KANSAS CITY, June 12.—A special to The Star from Leavenworth, Kan., says: A diabolical attempt was made upon the life of Governor Andrew J. Smith of the National Soldiers home, and his wife and daughter, between 4 and 5 o'clock, by some dastard who is as yet unknown. Dynamite was employed in the outrage and the explosion, which all but demolished the governor's beautiful residence, aroused the residents of the city and houses trembled as if undergoing an earthquake shock. Mrs. Smith had a miraculous escape from death, the base of the explosion being directly beneath her bed chamber. Besides being cut and bruised by broken glass and furniture, she was completely prostrated by the frightful shock and is now in a precarious condition. Governor Smith and his daughter, Miss Daisy, occupied rooms on the second floor, and were far enough removed from the explosion to escape the serious consequences suffered by Mrs. Smith.

Governor Smith attributes the attempt on his life and that of his family as a direct result of the persecution that has been waged against him during the past six years. The veterans at the home are standing by him manfully and swear they will lynch the wretch if he is caught.

Joseph W. Oliver, a dishonorably discharged veteran, has been arrested by the police of this city. Evidence against him is strong. He had just come to his room after being out all night. His clothes are bedraggled and he said he was sorry the explosion had not killed the governor, as he deserved such a fate. Oliver bears a rough reputation.

GERMANY'S ATTITUDE.

Alleged That the Kaiser's Government Would Overthrow the Greek Dynasty. LONDON, June 12.—The correspondent of The Daily Mail at Athens says: Extraordinary rumors are current as to the attitude of Germany. It is alleged that the German government seeks to overthrow the Greek dynasty and to establish a rigorous control of Greek finances. In order to attain this double object Germany wants a continuance of the war and to have the terms of peace finally dictated in Athens itself. These statements seem scarcely worthy of credence, but it is probable that Germany will continue to press for financial control.

IRON AND STEEL STATISTICS.

Production in 1896 Considerably Under That of 1895—Exports Increased.

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—James M. Swank, general manager of the American Iron and Steel association, has issued his annual report for 1896. The report contains complete statistics of the iron and steel industries of the United States for 1896 and a review of their present condition, also statistics of the iron and steel industries of foreign countries in past years. In 1896 the United States made 6,622,127 tons of pig iron, 3,919,096 tons of Bessemer steel ingots, 1,298,700 tons of open hearth ingots, and 5,281,689 tons of steel of all kinds, and rolled in all 5,515,841 tons of finished iron and steel, including rails. There were also shipped in the same year 9,916,095 tons of Lake Superior iron ore and 5,411,602 net tons of Connelville coke.

These figures all show material decrease as compared with corresponding items of production in 1895.

The foreign values of all iron and steel manufactures imported into the United States in 1896 was $19,506,587, a decrease of $6,265,549. The exports of iron and steel from the United States for the same period amounted to $48,760,218, an increase of $13,598,655.

Two Men Tarred and Feathered.

MISSOULA, Mon., June 12.—Charles Chadwick, a railroad engineer, and Frank Sparks, charged with debauching young girls, were taken to the outskirts of the city by indignant citizens and treated to a coat of tar and feathers. They were warned not to return to the city.
