BOTH SIDES FIRM

FIFTH WEEK OF COAL STRIKE ENDS WITH NO SIGNS OF A SETTLEMENT.

IS A TEST OF ENDURANCE

Neither Miner Nor Operator Has Anything Further to Propose and the Solution of the Dispute Must Come From an Outside Party—Approximately One Hundred and Sixty-five Thousand Men and Boys Idle.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 16.—The fifth week of the anthracite coal miners strike has ended. Neither side has weakened an inch and each side stands just as firmly as it did thirty-five days ago. As the days go by it becomes more apparent that it is a case of the "survival of the fittest." Neither the miner nor operator has anything further to propose and if a solution of the dispute is to come it looks very much as though it will have to come from a third party. The entire region is quiet and the territory affected by the strike presents Sunday-like appearance. Including those who are not on strike but who are affected by the suspension there are approximately 165,000 men and boys idle. The efforts of the strike leaders to bring out the fire bosses is not meeting with as much success as they expected. President Mitchell has received advice from West Virginia which, he says, are extremely favorable to the strikers. One telegram from Kanawha and New River districts, where a total of 13,000 men are employed, says that 11,000 men are on strike in that territory.

OPERATORS CONFIDENT.

Announce Change in Working Plans When Strike is Over.

New York, June 16.—So confident are the mine operators of winning their struggle with their employees in the anthracite region that a statement has been issued at Wilkesbarre to the effect that when operations shall have resumed fewer men will be employed. It is planned to reduce the number of miners one-third and increase wages by one-third. In other words the operators believe their forces can be reduced from an approximate of 147,000 men to 100,000. The operators say they will not attempt to resume the mining of coal at all collieries and that restrictions will be placed on the summary closing of the mines without notice by the men remaining away from work for the purpose of celebrating various holidays, etc., and they will be expected to be on duty every day the mine is open.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 16.—The statement alleged to be from an official close to the large coal companies to the effect that the strike is teaching the operators to economize the working force at their mines and that after the strike is over less than 100,000 men will be used in the mines is denounced as a "fake."

General Manager Warriner of the Lehigh Valley Coal company said that neither his company nor the New Jersey Central railway know anything of the origin of the story. A prominent official of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal company also denied all knowledge of the statement.

DYNAMITE IS USED.

Home of a Special Mine Officer at West Hazleton Wrecked.

Hazleton, Pa., June 16.—The home of John Applegate, at West Hazleton, was badly shattered by an explosion of dynamite which had been placed near the side of the building. The family escaped injury. Applegate had been employed as a special officer of the Cranberry colliery since the strike went into effect.

Frank Pardee, superintendent of the Cranberry colliery, has offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the dynamiters. He says bloodhounds will be brought here to assist the police in running down the guilty parties.

Applegate, while returning from the Cranberry colliery, whether he had gone to report off for the day on account of the explosion and the consequent shock to himself and family, was held up by two men and relieved of his revolver. He made no resistance as four other armed men stood close by, ready to assist, if necessary, in overpowering him. Applegate knows the men and they will be arrested.

Mrs. Applegate says she was told by a West Hazleton man that fourteen houses would be dynamited if the men occupying them did not stop working at surrounding mines.

Managed to Get Pumps Started. Shamokin, Pa., June 16.—A carload of coal and iron police and a number of firemen and engineers arrived here during the day from Pottsville and were taken to the Franklin colliery at Trevorton. The operation is owned by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company and has been flooded since the firemen's strike. Pumps were started shortly after the noon men arrived.

Robbed of Diamonds and Cash. Minneapolis, June 16.—Nellie Bryan, proprietress of a resort, was robbed of diamonds valued at $2,685 and $40 in cash. The diamonds were taken from a safe in the woman's room, while numerous people were in the house. The police have been notified but no arrests have been made.

Hunt for Convicts Abandoned. Portland, Ore., June 16.—The hunt for Tracy and Merrill, the escaped convicts, has been abandoned, and the state troops have been sent home. Governor Geer has doubled the reward for the capture of the fugitives, dead or alive, making it now $5,000.

President Roosevelt's message to Congress urging the passage of reciprocity legislation for Cuba is a vigorous, manly and timely document. It has the true ring of honest purpose and honest dealing with the infant republic. "We are bound by every consideration of honor and experience to pass commercial measures in the interest of her well being," says President Roosevelt, and we hope congress will not override this wise admonition as it did Mr. McKinley's "plain duty" injunction towards Porto Rico. President Roosevelt has urged this action long and persistently, towards our sister republic, and now feels in issuing this last special message on the subject he has fulfilled his duty and will now leave further responsibility with congress. We believe the president is right in the matter.

Philadelphia is getting down to about the lowest depths of municipal corruption of any of our large cities, although St. Louis and New York are hard to outdo. Trafficking in franchises, contracts, building sites, etc., are respectable matters nowadays along-side the black mail levied by Philadelphia school directors upon teachers. The payment of money is a regular condition of appointment or promotion of a teacher. One principal testified that when he sought transfer to another school, where his salary would have been increased several hundred dollars, one director demanded of him $1,000 for his aid. When this was refused, he gradually lowered his price until he stopped at $300. The principal had been advised by two other directors to consult this director and take his advice. When the principal told the president of the board this shameful story that official, while deprecating the act of the director, admonished the teacher that if elected he ought to "remember" the directors who voted for him. A woman teacher testified that she had paid $120 to a director for her appointment, but that one director had generously returned $30. Another teacher testified that $175 was demanded of her as a condition of appointment but that just as she raised a portion of it, the installment agreed upon, the exposure came and the proceedings followed, which have revealed this lower depth of Philadelphia's infamy.

Sioux Falls Press, 11: A shortage of 400,000 acres of wheat in South Dakota is reported by the agricultural department. Though the statistics are not yet forthcoming, it is estimated that the missing wheat acreage is more than replaced by added corn acreage, last year's corn shortage stimulating the cultivation of that product.

Yankton college graduated its twentieth class last Thursday, there being nine graduates, among whom was Raymond Benedict McClenon of Madison, whose thesis was the Metaphysics of Herbert Spencer. A memorable incident of the commencement exercises was the unveiling of a bust of Dr. D. K. Piersons of Hinsdale, Ill., who has been a liberal benefactor of the institution in the past. The unveiling ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Brodie, pastor of Dr. Piersons at Hinsdale.

Don't Follow Advice After Paying for It.

In a recent article a prominent physician says, "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patient to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resort left, namely the drug treatment." When medicines are used for chronic constipation, the most mild and gentle obtainable, such as Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale by all Druggists.

NEGOTIATIONS UNDER WAY.

Milling Trust After the Pillsbury-Washburn Plants.

Milwaukee, June 16.—The Evening Wisconsin says:

It is learned in Milwaukee from a prominent business man who has just returned from New York, that negotiations are under way between the financial head of the recently organized Standard Milling company and the Washburn-Crosby and the Pillsbury Milling companies of Minneapolis for the sale to the combine of those famous plants, the average daily output of which is 50,000 barrels. A strong effort was made three years ago to include these plants in the American Flour Milling company, but it failed because of the opposition of the late Mr. Pillsbury. It is now said that the deal has more chance to go through successfully.
