Coach Clifford Coffey and the high school track team were morning passengers for Vermillion to take part in a state meet. Teams from sixteen high schools have been entered and it is expected about 250 young athletes will be in attendance. The team consists of W. Stearns, Habeger, Schmidt, Sampson, E. Jones, Merle Jones and Thos. Wadden accompanied the team to provide the pyrotechnics.

Dr. F. H. Files, county health officer, was this afternoon summoned to the Grimm farm, occupied by Wm. Peck, three miles northeast of Winfred. A large herd of cattle is kept on the farm and neighbors complain that about thirty head died during the winter and are lying on the ground unburied. With the approaching hot weather the decaying carcasses are a menace to health. Hence application to the health officer to compel Peck to properly dispose of the dead animals.

Mrs. Anderson, a character of the early days of Madison, stepped off the north train upon its arrival this morning and with her young son, aged about a dozen years, proceeded north in Egan avenue. Mrs. Anderson's son was born in this city, and mother and child were for a time inmates at the poor farm. Later they were provided with transportation out of the city, and have been frequently heard of by the local officials at different points in this state and Minnesota. Chief of Police Davis and Co. Com. Bingham were much surprised to see Mrs. Anderson, but neither seemed anxious to bestow an immediate greeting.

Mrs. Donovan, an attendant from the state hospital for the insane at Yankton, arrived this morning for the purpose of removing to the hospital Mrs. Helen Olson of Rutland, adjudged insane in Judge Blewitt's court. After examination Mrs. Olson was allowed to return home with her husband and it is expected she will be brought to the city today in time to start for Yankton by the west train this evening. Mrs. Olson will be remembered as having attempted to commit suicide by cutting her throat with a razor during the temporary absence of her husband in the field at corn husking time last fall.

The primary and kindergarten departments of the training school are preparing a most elaborate and charming little operetta, entitled, Cinderella in Flower Land, to be given at the Normal auditorium, Thursday evening, May 27th. The parents and teachers of the small performers are sparing neither time nor expense to make this one of the prettiest and daintiest little entertainments ever given in Madison. The fairy story of Cinderella is represented by flowers, and includes also brownies, butterflies, raindrops, sunbeams, requiring about 100 children from 3 to 10 years of age. General admission, 25 cents; reserved seats, 35 cents.

Oscar Holman, arrested yesterday on the charge of malicious mischief in that he cut and slashed baggage at the depot, and whose hearing was set for 1:30 this afternoon, was in Judge Sponholz's court at the hour named. On account of Holman being a minor, aged 16 years, the first charge against him brought by the state was dismissed and the lad was rearrested under city ordinance charged with disorderly conduct. To this he pleaded guilty and the proceedings of the police court were certified up to County Judge Blewitt with a view of committing Holman to the reform school. Hearing in the case is set for 10 a.m., Saturday.

Ed. Myers, son of Sam Myers, the city deliveryman, reported to the police last evening that he had been held up and robbed. The circumstance as related by Myers is that he had business in the west part of town and walked on the railroad track to a point west of the round house where he was attacked by three men who commanded him to hold up his hands and while in this helpless condition the footpads went through his pockets and abstracted $15. The alleged robbery occurred about 8:30. Myers returned to the city and notified the police and a search of the railroad yards was made, but no suspicious characters were found. There have been tramps in the railroad yards within the past few days, but these have been driven out by the police. The footpads did not attempt to injure Myers, and after going through his pockets they ran down the railroad grade and disappeared among the box cars.

ODD FELLOWS

Hundreds Present at the State Convention in Black Hills.

Deadwood, May 19.—Amid the strains of the Deadwood band the first big delegation of Odd Fellows arrived at noon yesterday over the Northwestern railroad. The coaches were packed to full capacity with a fine looking crowd that numbered in the neighborhood of four hundred.

The weather man either had not been bribed or just naturally kicked over the track, because he failed to furnish the brand of climate that has become properly famous as the Black Hills kind. A stiff breeze did its best to make trouble most of the day, and in the evening gave place to gentle showers that evidently were all that was needed to clear the atmosphere and make today most delightful.

The Northwestern passenger came in with another monster load of humanity this noon, and the Burlington also had its quota, among the arrivals on the latter line, being Grand Sire Kirkendall of Denver.

The band was out to meet all the trains and lead the guests to Odd Fellows headquarters in the Elks' building on Main street, where members of Eureka lodge assigned the delegates and their families to lodging places with all possible expedition. The spacious room has been furnished with inviting deep-seated rockers and in the center is to be found an information booth, where an efficient corps is on hand night and day to dispense all sorts of useful knowledge. Telephone booths are a much appreciated part of the equipment also.

It is estimated that up to a late hour this afternoon between eight hundred and one thousand persons from outside points were in the city and the arrivals tomorrow and Wednesday are almost certain to swell the total to fifteen hundred or two thousand.

The contestants for the Odd Fellows home are on the job with both feet, and are spending the time preceding the opening of the grand lodge session tomorrow with some strenuous log rolling. Lake Preston established headquarters right after dinner, but the smiles are still chasing themselves across the countenances of the men from Hot Springs.

The city hall has been made beautiful with flags and red, white and blue bunting intermingled with the Odd Fellow and Rebekah emblems. It is there the reception is to be held this evening.

BAPTIST CHURCHES

Sioux Falls Association in Sixteenth Annual Session at Spencer.

The Sioux Falls Baptist association closed its sixteenth anniversary meeting at Spencer on Sunday, May 16th. The delegated attendance was not large, however the interest shown by the local church assured a good audience at each session, with a full house each evening. The address on Friday evening by Dr. D. D. Proper, D. D., on the work of our three denominational societies and the address on Saturday evening by Rev. W. C. King, general missionary for the state were most interesting and profitable. This has been one of the most successful and inspiring gatherings in the history of the association and every session characterized by unanimity, earnestness and serious purpose.

One new church, Beaver Baptist church was admitted to the association and the hand of fellowship extended to the representative present.

Plans were perfected for doing aggressive evangelistic work. The tent owned by the association will be placed in charge of Rev. M. A. Hainer, evangelist, and will be set up at once at strategic and needy points.

Statistics received to date from eight churches show a prosperous year. During the year these churches have raised for all purposes $13,584.72, an average of $18.64 per member. The membership has increased from 804 to 919. There have been 189 additions by baptism.
