

Good News For You

To meet the popular demand for still lower prices the Clothing Manufacturers of the country have this week offered to all retailers a reduction of 33 1/3% on Winter Suits and Overcoats. We were the first Clothing Store in this community to hammer down the H. C. L. as applied to clothing without any concessions from the Manufacturers. It is therefore, with pleasure that we are now enabled to pass on to you another substantial reduction on our entire stock of Men's and Boy's Clothing. Furnishings, Goods and Shoes in the shape of a cash discount of

ONE-THIRD OFF

Copyright 1919, Hart Schaffner & Marx

This Means That You Can Purchase From Us Suits and Overcoats AT LESS THAN THEY COST US WHOLESALE. It will pay you not to let an opportunity of this kind go by, as unquestionably the values we offer are priced away out of all proportion to the reductions we expect to receive from Manufacturers for next season. Collars excepted.

Madison

E. J. SUTTON

So. Dak.

LYRIC THEATRE

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

DOUBLE BILL

Charles Ray

IN

"The Village Sleuth"

Produced by Thomas H. Ince

Under his humble farmhand's jacket, burned the soul of a great detective. A picture with all the charm and heart appeal that made Charles Ray the best loved actor on the screen and more laughs than the "Hick" Sleuth's pup had fleas.

Also Two Reel Sennett Comedy "IT'S A BOY"

ADMISSION 15 and 30 cents

For Sale. Cabbage, solid, winter variety, $2.25 per 100 lbs., express prepaid.—C. A. Dibben, Flandreau, S. D.

Regular meeting Encampment No. 15 Tuesday evening, Nov. 16. Good attendance urged as there will be work. Lunch served.—Geo. H. Palmer, C. P.

Perle Cotton, large balls, 33c, this afternoon and evening.—The Art Store.

Ludfisk at Scudder Bros. Phone 2297.

Important official meeting at the Methodist church following the Thursday evening prayer meeting.—Rev. R. C. Ballard, Pastor.

Why abuse your car by leaving it on the streets these cold days when there is lots of room at Raad's garage, where it is nice and warm, and where you can have your battery, oil, water, and air attended to free, while at your business, in your office, while doing shopping, attending church or show. Cost you only 25c for six hours storage. Make Raad's garage your headquarters, a place to meet your friends and a place to keep your wraps and parcels after the stores are closed. Our floor men are at your service at all times.

LOCAL NEWS

Miss Ruth Dahlen was down from Oldham today for dental work. Wm. McAllister submitted to an operation at the local hospital this forenoon.

W. F. Burke and little daughter are in the city today from Roswell for dental work.

Miss Madella Rensch returned today from Howard, where she transacted business for several days.

Mrs. E. W. Tuttle, of Sioux Falls, spent last night in this city the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. G. Quarstrom.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bell were enroute today to Pierson, Iowa. They spent six weeks in Madison while calling on their son, Frank Bell, and family.

Mrs. Lena Cuddington who conducted a beauty parlor over the Kohler pharmacy has relocated in rooms over Porter Bros. drug and jewelry store.

Paul Patet sustained serious injury to the index finger of his left hand yesterday while engaged at work on the new Orland school building.

Mrs. John Birrenkott, of Aberdeen, and Mrs. E. J. Nestor, of Carlyle, S. D., and baby Dwane, daughters of Mrs. John Carr, returned to their homes by an afternoon train.

F. V. Heaton and Mr. J. H.

Thursday Nite

American Legion Benefit

High School, November 18th

Music
Everybody
Likes

RICKETT'S MALE QUARTET

Vocal and Instrumental

Four
Real
Singers

DON'T MISS IT!

Tickets on Sale and Reserved Wednesday Morning at Kohler's Pharmacy

Admission: 50c, 75c, $1.00

November 18

November 18

RUBY

Tonight and Wednesday

Harry Carey

—IN—

"SUNDOWN SLIM"

Another good old Western with a punch.

ALSO COMEDY

Admission 10c-25c

THE CITY.

BUSINESS LOCALS

Mrs. L. G. Efner, of Chicago, will demonstrate the wonderful merits of the new French knot and chenille art needle at the Art store this afternoon and evening.

Reserved seats for the Swiss Bell Ringers are going fast at the Rexall Store.

Wanted. To trade a heavy work team for a light driving team.—H. H. Steiber, phone 3797.

Apples! Apples! Apples! C. A. Kelley has the ones you want under Millard's store.

As a Christmas present or for daily use in your house, The Fuller Brushes are most practical. A representative will call on you. Make sure to see him.

Special. Perle cotton 2 for 35c, this afternoon and evening. The Art store.

I have relocated the second floor of Porter Bros. building and am ready to take care of my patrons there.—Mrs. Lena Cuddington, Beauty Specialist.

LYRIC

Tonight and Wednesday

DOUBLE BILL

BEAUTIFUL

Justine Johnstone

—IN—

"BLACKBIRDS"

Two Outlaws from Society.

There are heaps of thrills in "Blackbirds." The story of a beautiful girl, the decoy of a band of international crooks.

Also Two Reel Mack Sennett Comedy "DON'T WEAKEN"

Admission 15 and 30c

At one o'clock tomorrow afternoon a large bunch of exclusive well registered Shorthorn cattle will be placed on sale at auction in the recently completed sales pavilion. The owners, Messrs. Grimm and Corbin have engaged Col. H. S. Duncan, of Chicago, and Col. L. G. Atherton, of this city as auctioneers.

After much pains and expense following the last heavy sleet storm the Dakota Central Telephone company has finally got all of its lines in this section in commission once more with two exceptions, namely, two lines to Ramona and one between this place and Chester. Communication can now be had in all directions out of Madison.

J. J. Fitzgerald is at present a very sick man at his home on Egan avenue N. He has been confined to his bed the most of the time since election day. A consultation over his case is about to be held. The attending physician, Dr. H. E. Kellogg will have with him at this proceeding both Dr. Sheets, of Carthage and Dr. Conley, of Sioux City.

Funeral services for the late H. A. Hartwich will be conducted from Tabor Evangelical church at 2:00 p. m., tomorrow. Since the deceased was so widely known it is expected that a great many people will attend out of respect for a man whom all knew as a friend and excellent neighbor. The son residing in California will possibly reach Ramona in time for the services.

Last evening about 20 ladies were entertained at the home of Mrs. Ella Sheldon who gave a miscellaneous shower for Miss Cora Craney a bride-to-be. Mrs. Joe Ryan won first prize laurels at cards. Miss Craney, the honored guest receiving the lowest one. The shower included gifts too numerous to mention but appreciated nevertheless by the person for whom intended.

Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all druggists. 7c.

FOLEY CATHARTIC TABLETS

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS