How to take the H. C. L. out of clothes buying for fall

CLOTHES are higher priced; all of them—good or bad. The poor ones cost about the same as the good ones—not much difference any more.

Here's some good advice; take it from us; don't try to "beat the game," and pay the lowest price; you'll get poor quality; the clothes won't last and your "High Cost of Clothing" will go up several notches.

Here's the right way; get good quality; pay for it; the wear and service you get saves for you and reduces the H. C. L.

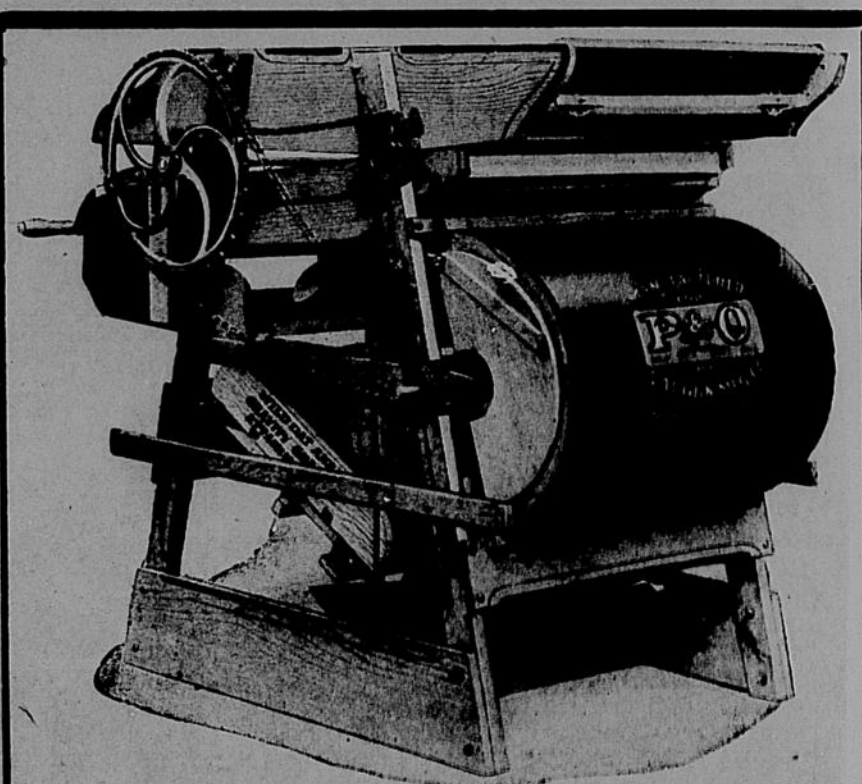

Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes do it; they're made to give; your money's worth; satisfaction or your money back.
