BIG GUNS ARRIVING

At the National Republican Convention.

EMPHATICALLY FOR GOLD

Warner Miller's Slap at Mr. Platt.

THE PROCEEDINGS OF TODAY.

The Convention Will Assemble Next Tuesday.

St. Louis, June 13.—Every incoming train today brought crowds of delegates and others, to attend the Republican national convention. Among prominent people who arrived, were ex-Governor Fomaker of Ohio, who will place McKinley in nomination before the convention; Chauncey M. Depew, who is to nominate Levi P. Morton. Ex-Senator Warner Miller, delegate-at-large, from New York, said: "There is no Republican in the New York delegation that will bolt. Further, there is no man in the delegation, who can take ten New York men out of the convention, under any pretext whatever."

Littleton Price, delegate from Idaho, says a ticket nominated on a gold platform could not secure 150 votes in Idaho. He intends to offer to the convention a resolution condemning the too free use of the veto power by the president. The members of the national committee began work at 10:15. The work was begun with scarcely a quorum present.

Senator Teller will probably be here tonight, and a conference of silver men will be held. Western men find the gold sentiment so strong, they have no hope whatever of making any particular show in the convention. Chauncey M. Depew received the following telegram from Governor Morton: "Please announce as I stated to you, before you left New York, that I would not, under any circumstances, accept the nomination for vice president."

MCKINLEY MEN SEATED.

The Tennessee contests were taken up, the first being from the sixth district, which includes the city of Nashville. J. B. Bosley and H. L. W. Cheatham, all McKinley men, were seated. From the ninth district Nunn and Austin, McKinley men, were seated. The South Carolina contests were then taken up. The entire delegation of four delegates at large and fourteen district delegates were contested. There are two district organizations in South Carolina, that known as "regular" being headed by E. A. Webster, chairman state committee, the other known as "Lily Whites," being headed by E. L. Melton and E. M. Brayton, member national committee. The Webster delegates were seated. They are for McKinley.

Rumor was current after adjournment of the national committee for lunch that Evans, of Tennessee, had been induced to withdraw from the race for vice-president in favor of New Jersey. He is said to have taken this step in deference to the wishes of the McKinley managers. As a reward, it is said, postmaster generalship will be given to Evans in case of McKinley's election.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN.

St. Louis, June 13.—C. W. Fairbanks, has been named as temporary chairman of the Republican national convention. C. W. Johnson, of Minnesota, temporary secretary, W. E. Riley, of Kentucky, Harry Smith, of Washington, D. C., and A. B. Humphreys of New York, assistants.

EMPHATIC FOR GOLD.

It was generally believed last night that the declaration in favor of the gold standard in the republican platform will be very emphatic and unequivocal. When the men from the east reach St. Louis, they will find that the close friends of Major McKinley are ready to offer them a financial plank that they can agree upon without hesitancy. Several drafts of a platform have been prepared, and it is now believed that a form has been secured which will be satisfactory. It will declare against the free coinage of silver, unless it should be brought by international agreement. No ratio is mentioned, and in this respect it is more acceptable to the gold men. It will also declare the Republicans are against the debasement of the currency, and is, therefore, in favor of the present gold standard. The Republican party will be given credit for having brought about the resumption act, which has always maintained every dollar at a party, whether coin or paper, and it will declare that the standard of money should be, as it always has been, and is now, equal to that of the most enlightened nations of the world. These declarations embody the wishes of the friends of McKinley, and the men who are now here approve them.

If the resolution should be changed, it will either be by the committee on resolutions or the convention itself, but this is not likely, as it contains all that is asked for, except by the most extreme gold men, who want a straight single-standard declaration on nothing more. There is some opposition to the reference to an international agreement, but those who desire that language inserted in the resolution say the party should not place itself in opposition to the coinage of silver under an international agreement, if such an arrangement could be made, but that the party is not to be pledged to bring about such an agreement, which is a contention of some of the delegates. It is believed by those who have examined the proposed financial resolution that it will meet every demand that can be made by Eastern men, and that it will be incorporated into the platform when adopted.

THREE OPINIONS.

"There has never been a national convention in which as thorough an agreement on every plank in the platform will be reached, as the one to be held at St. Louis. The money plank will be practically adopted before the convention is called to order. (Signed) I. M. McMilliken, delegate-at-large from Indiana."

"While California is in favor of the free coinage of silver, it still has interests it considers greater, and that is why it favors protection. Our greatest wealth lies in our natural products, in wool and live-stock, and we are as desirous of extreme and radical protection as for the free coinage of silver. As Republicans we want to fight out all issues within the party. (Signed) M. H. De Young."

"As a Democrat it is not perhaps generally conceded that I should render my views in regard to the convention here, but since you asked it, I can only say that it seems to me that the nomination of Major McKinley, now a foregone conclusion, is the logical beginning of an effort to utterly extract the question of finance from the forthcoming campaign, an effort which I believe the people generally will resent. I cannot see any other great ground for Major McKinley's selection. He is a symbol of the tariff, and his nomination must mean that the Republican campaign is to be conducted with a pleasing haze of doubt over the money issue. "If the Republicans can stand this kind of a campaign, I am sure that these historic opponents will offer no objections to them doing so, they being secure in the feeling that the people want to express themselves emphatically on finance above all other things. (Signed) W. J. Stone, governor of Missouri."

Democrats Meet.

CHICAGO, June 13.—W. F. Harry, chairman of national Democratic committee, arrived this morning at the national headquarters at the Palmer house, where he met Secretary Sherin, of Indiana, who came yesterday. There was a sort of a preliminary meeting at headquarters today at noon. After things here are fixed comfortably the committeemen will go to St. Louis and look on at the Republican convention.

Peary Looking for a Whaler.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., June 13.—Lieut. Peary arrived today on the steamer Portia, from New York, seeking a whaler to convey him with a scientific expedition to Greenland. It is expected he will have great difficulty in obtaining a suitable ship.

AN INDIGNATION MEET

Over the First Congressional Election.

LARGE CROWD ASSEMBLED

A Recount of the Official Ballots Demanded.

At 1:30 about 100 people had assembled, and at 2 o'clock nearly 500 were present. The principal signers to the call arrived at 2 o'clock, and R. R. Ryan called to order. He stated that it was a meeting to express their indignation at the way the legislature, the county canvassing boards, and the precinct judges had treated the Populists in this election.

He introduced Mr. Swank, of Aumsville who made a speech of short duration. He had been a delegate to the state reform convention in 1872 and had seen the progress of reform ideas against all obstacles. He appealed to the manhood of American citizens to demand an honest ballot and a fair count and just treatment of all men and all parties. He proceeded into a general Populist argument.

At this point a great many more ladies arrived and were given seats on the platform. J. K. Sears of Polk county was next introduced. He was the fusion candidate for senator in Polk county. He had been defeated in many elections but he had seen a steady gain of reform principles. The report had gone out that Oregon was disgraced by a Populist being elected to congress, then the changes began until Mr. Tongue, the attorney and candidate of the corporations, was claimed to be elected.

Mr. Sears said he himself had been counted out by the "Indians of Grand Ronde agency. His remarks were well received and interrupted with applause repeatedly.

E. Hofer was called for and spoke on behalf of the silver Republicans of this district, thousands of whom had voted for Mr. Vandenberg. It was as much their fight to have a recount of ballots as it was of the Democrats and Populists who had voted with them. He reviewed the situation from two years ago, when Hermann had carried this district by 11,000 plurality, to the Albany convention and its methods, the order to knife every silver Republican candidate and defeat every man who sought to represent the masses of the people.

He concluded by saying, there should be a non-partisan, unprejudiced recount of the original ballots in every county where there was any evidence of tampering with the returns, and pledged every person present would abide by the result, be it Tongue or Vandenberg.

At 3 p. m. Geo. Allen offered resolutions expressing condemnation of the proceedings and demanding a recount of the ballots in the district. A full report will appear Monday.

Beaten by Thugs.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., June 12.—At an early hour yesterday morning two unknown men assaulted Charles Johnson, night watchman of the bridge over the Sacramento river, and beat him into insensibility with a club. At the railroad hospital it was found that Johnson's skull had been fractured, and it is thought he cannot recover. The men were about to throw Johnson into the river, when they were frightened away by approaching footsteps. It is believed that the men who assaulted Johnson were the same he ordered off the bridge earlier in the night for insulting a woman.

To Platt, of New York: "Gilt!"

Advice is cheap, but free legal advice comes high.

Mr. McKinley's fate will be determined next Tuesday.

Mr. Quay says he is out of a race he never was in at St. Louis.

Dr. Bingham's new shingle: "Consultation free in city cases."

Mr. Stawberry is crowding Miss June Rose for the first place.

Street Commissioner Culver: "No more free legal advice for me."

All city officials are hereby notified that John H. Albert is loaded.

John Albert is still in possession of that strip of gravel on Mission street.

City Chief of Police Dilley says he is still able to pay all bills over 30 cents.

Judge Davidson says he can testify to John Albert's skill as a road grabber.

It can probably be truthfully asserted that one city official has a swelled head.

Mr. Virgil Conn, of Paisley, Lake county is joint representative elect by the grace of three plurality.

Street Commissioner Culver came near being another victim of taking a blackeye at his post of duty.

A petition is being circulated to have Banker Albert administer his ruler message to lawyer Bingham.

Jimmy Culver should sue Lawyer Bingham for having been knocked out in the first round with a dangerous weapon.

H. S. Benson, of Josephine county, will sit in the next legislature; he says his county is for Mitchell and sound money. And he is right.

D. P. Thompson, for member of the state board of equalization, got the biggest vote of any Multnomah county man who ran on the ticket.

With a prospect of being called out to quell disturbances both at Astoria and Yew Park, the life of the Oregon militia man is a precarious one at best.

The keeping of Jeff Myers on the track had one good effect. It erases a cipher from the blackboard of Oregon politics that was always used to multiply the power of the gang.

Jap Minto keeps calling in the warrants. He is the best treasurer this county ever had, and if the new treasurer follows in his footsteps he will be a credit to the Populist party.

Messrs. Republican delegates to St. Louis: "Get right in and help adopt a gold platform; there isn't one of you but what the people would cheerfully bury if they could get a chance."

Wm. A. Cleland, the handsomest man who helped to run Dolph's sideboard at Salem during the last legislature, was snowed under for municipal judge at Portland by the Populist.

If the union bimetallic party will eliminate all bluster, force a square fight on the silver issue and genuine reforms in the state and county government, it is the party that will come pretty near carrying Oregon.

John Smith says if he does all his trading at one store in this congressional district and always found all the mistakes on one side of the account and against him he would begin to kick and go somewhere else to trade.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

It is to be regretted that Mayor Gatch and the council backed up by that athlete Geo. Bingham, were not sent to tear that fence down. John Albert would not say of such fighting men: "I routed them, I scouted them, I put them all to flight."

Banker Vawter, one of the syndicate who held up the congressional district convention at Albany, says Mr. Langell, the only Republican elected from Jackson county to the legislature, will not vote for Mr. Mitchell for senator unless he stands on the St. Louis platform. Mr. Vawter talks very much as though he voted Mr. Langell.

Will John H. Mitchell stand on the St. Louis platform? He will probably let the people know after that platform is made. He was the first free silver senator on the coast. He was a silver man before the gentleman from Ohio was heard from. Why should John H. Mitchell kneel at the feet of McKinley. We have a bigger man in Oregon any way you take him than Mr. McKinley, John H. Mitchell or Henry L. Barkley either.

While the vote in Oregon at the recent election stood 55,000 for the free silver candidates for congress and 27,000 for the "sound money" candidates, yet the delegates to the national Republican convention under the whip of the Oregonian will force a gold standard platform upon the party and force it to face defeat in Oregon. Of course, the Oregonian and the alleged delegates from Oregon will go on misrepresenting the people.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

Officers Elected.—A Salem Man Honored.

The Oregon Department G. A. R. encampment was held at Independence June 11, 12, closing this morning. There were about 125 delegates from different parts of the state and about 600 Grand Army veterans besides the W. R. C. Regular routine business was transacted and the following officers that were elected Friday were installed this morning:

Major D. C. Sherman, Salem, department commander.

J. H. Stockton, Independence, senior vice-commander.

J. W. Maxwell, Tillamook, Junior vice-commander.

H. C. Barden, Portland, chaplain.

Dr. B. H. Bradshaw, Salem, medical director.

J. W. Burlingame, Eugene, delegate-at-large to the national encampment.

The five members elected to act as the council of administration are: R. A. Frame, Portland; E. F. Chapman, Eugene; I. A. Macrum, Forest Grove; D. W. Matthews, Salem; G. W. Gardner, Hubbard.

The delegates and old veterans were royally treated by the Independence citizens whose hospitality will be enjoyed again next year since the encampment will again meet at Independence.

Indigestion is often taken for consumption. The word consumption means wasting away, and dyspepsia often waste away as badly as consumptives. The reason people waste away is because either they don't get enough to eat, or they don't digest what they eat. If the latter is your trouble, take Shaker Digestive Cordial. This will help you to digest your food and stop your loss of flesh. Shaker Digestive Cordial is made from herbs, barks and juices of fruit, by the well-known Shakers at Mount Lebanon. It possesses great tonic and digestive powers. Shaker Digestive Cordial has cured many supposed consumptives (who were really dyspeptic), by simply helping their stomachs to digest their food, thus giving them nourishment and new strength. Sold by druggists. Trial bottles 10 cents.
