

During the Course of the State Fair

N. Y. RACKET

will continue to sell their goods at their usual low prices. They have a fine line of men's and boys' clothing and overcoats. Also the celebrated line of boots and shoes for men, women and children, of the best quality, and at very low prices. The line of for men, women and children is complete. Also ribbons, laces, embroideries, handkerchiefs, suspenders, hats and caps, wool, yarn of all kinds, duck coats, overalls, jackets, and a thousand other items, all sold at 15 to 25 per cent below ordinary prices. Call and see for yourselves. We will save you money.

UNDERWEAR

E. T. BARNES.

OREGON

Industrial Exposition

Portland, Oregon, Sept. 19 to Oct. 17.

The great resources of the Pacific Northwest. Agriculture, Horticulture, Fisheries, Mines, Manufactures, Transportation, Machinery, Trade and Commerce will be represented more completely than ever before.

THE WILLAMETTE HOTEL

LEADING HOTEL OF THE CITY.

Reduced rates. Management liberal. Electric cars leave hotel for all public buildings and points of interest. Special rates will be given to permanent patrons.

A. I. WAGNER.

Lawn Mowers, Gray Bros. Machine Oils, Hay Rakes, and Axle Grease. Hardware, Stoves and Tinware. Garden Hose, Bicycles, Lawn Sprinklers, Salem, Or. Sundries.

MEN'S

Fall Suits "Ready."

The grandest, the most select, the choicest assortment of men's dress suits, business suits, every day suits your eyes ever beheld, fabrics that are meritorious, linings that are reliable, styles that are new, fit that shows study, and last but not least, prices that are well, prices that fit your purse, be it small or large. New fall suits at from $4.75 TO $20.

G. W. Johnson & Son The Popular Clothiers' State and Liberty Streets.

AN OREGON SHOOTING

Wallowa County Officers Capture Horse-thieves.

ONE WAS SHOT IN THE HEAD.

Attacked by a Woman and Shot by a Lawyer.

LA GRANDE, Oct. 9.—Particulars of a battle between horse-thieves and deputy sheriffs in Wallowa county, were received from Enterprise a few days ago two men, George and Henry Smith, passed through the Imnaha with a band of horses, supposed to have been stolen, and camped on Corral creek. A day or so afterward a warrant was issued for their arrest. It was feared they would resist, and five men were sent out to bring them in. The camp was easily located, and Henry Smith was found in it and captured by strategy. Four officers went to the camp, leaving a fifth in charge of the horses. The officers carried no arms in sight, and the horse-thief did not suspect them, so that when they asked to see his pistol, he passed it over for inspection. The pistol was then turned on him, and he was compelled to hold up his hands. He was then taken away from the camp and left in charge of an officer.

Two of the officers started out to find the other brother, and one was left to watch the camp. George Smith returned to the camp and "got the drop" on the officer, and held him up. He suspected that something was wrong, and proceeded to march the officer up the trail. After proceeding a short distance, he met the two officers who were looking for him. The officers opened fire, which was returned by Smith, but none of the shots took effect. The officers then took refuge behind trees, and Smith fired four shots at them, three of which hit the trees. The deputy that Smith had a prisoner, fell to the ground as soon as the firing began, to escape the stray bullets.

The shooting cooled the ardor of the officers somewhat, and they turned their efforts toward keeping the trees between themselves and the horse-thief. While the horse-thief was trying to get another shot at the men behind the trees, the officer that had been left with the horses came up and shot the horse-thief in the head with a shotgun. He had heard the firing and came up just in time to relieve his brother officer from an unpleasant position.

Henry Smith was brought to Enterprise last night and lodged in jail, but George is too severely injured to be moved, and was left in the camp. A surgeon left Enterprise for the camp this morning, and until he returns the condition of the wounded man will not be known. It is supposed the sight of both of Smith's eyes is destroyed.

Mickel Stubblefield did the effective shooting.

CAME TO THE RESCUE.

LA GRANDE, Oct. 9.—At Enterprise, in Wallowa county, F. S. Ivanhoe shot and seriously wounded R. C. Gregg. Mr. Ivanhoe is a well-known attorney, and Mr. Gregg is a druggist. The report received says that Mrs. J. W. Dalzell and Gregg were having trouble over Mrs. Dalzell's son, and Mrs. Dalzell had assaulted Gregg with an umbrella. In attempting to disarm her, Gregg broke the umbrella, and a scuffle resulted. Mrs. Dalzell continued the assault, and, in protecting himself, Gregg used considerable force. Just at that time Ivanhoe appeared, and, seeing, as he suppose, a man assaulting a woman, took a shot at the man. The first time he missed, but the second shot struck Gregg in the jaw, inflicting a severe wound. The bullet was recovered by physicians this afternoon. Unless blood-poisoning sets in, no serious results are apprehended.

Ratification at Lebanon.

LEBANON, Oct. 8.—The McKinley ratification was a success if a crowd makes a success. There must have been nearly 2000 people there all told and out of that number here were probably about 500 voters and two-thirds of them were siverites. About 130 were over from Albany. "Go." McConnell addressed the crowd for about one hour, then W. L.

Tooze, of Woodburn, for about twenty minutes. He could hardly talk there was so much cheering for Bryan. It was apparent to all that the Bryan men were in the majority. The speaking was to have been held in the opera house but as it only holds about 400 people it was held at the Santiam academy campus, by 10 the speaking was over and Mr. Tooze proposed three cheers for McKinley and after the McKinley men cheered, the Bryan men cheered in great shape for Bryan. Just before the Albany train started to return it is reported there were two or three fights.

Cleveland at Home.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The President and Secretary Thurber arrived in Washington from New York this morning. They were driven at once to the White House.

Chicago's Big Celebration.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Chicago day, the anniversary of the great fire, 25 years ago was celebrated today, chiefly as a political holiday. Republicans and Democrats celebrated separately, each party having its own big street parade, as well as a mobster rathery indoors. Practically every factory and store in the city was closed, also the board of trade and banks.

AT WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY.

Students Given a Holiday—Political Clubs to Be Organized.

At a meeting of the board of trustees to Willamette University held Wednesday evening, it was decided to give the students a holiday today in order that they might attend the state fair. Such action was taken to comply with a petition presented bearing the signatures of the majority of the students. The matter of the students forming political clubs was strongly protested and as a result it is quite likely neither Bryan nor McKinley clubs will be organized. Students in all progressive colleges and universities have formed clubs but it seems there is too much opposition in the Salem school.

LATER.

Immediately following the dismissal of classes Thursday afternoon a number of McKinleyites gathered in room 13 and formed a temporary organization of the Students "McKinley and Hobart Club." Mr. Siewert acted as chairman while Carl Morris kept the minutes of the meeting. A constitution, embodying the purpose for which the organization is desired, was adopted. The club will effect a permanent organization on Monday.

The admirers of Bryan, the people's candidate for the presidency, will form an organization Monday. Were the young women of the school eligible to membership in the clubs, the Bryan organization would have an immense membership as the majority of the young women students are supporters of Bryan. When the two clubs have been organized it is proposed to have a joint debate on the money question which will no doubt prove highly entertaining as well as instructive.

STATE SEWER COMPLETED.—The final finishing touches were made to the state sewer branch of the huge state sewer Tuesday afternoon, and the work of constructing the sewer, as far as it will be prosecuted this year, is completed. "President" Earl Race, of the Salem "working-man's club," who acted as foreman of the job, has been given an additional week's work at the state fair pavilion, as clerk. Water-Carrier Adams has raised "Old Glory" in his front yard, and is shouting most vociferously for McKinley and "prosperity." The construction of the sewer required about five months and gave from fifteen to fifty men daily employment. If a further appropriation is made for the sewer by the legislature this winter, it will probably be completed next spring and summer to the asylum.

Idleman at Jefferson

EDITOR JOURNAL.—I drop you this note to let you know how enthusiastic the McKinley forces are here.

Hon. C. M. Idleman spoke here last night, there were about 200 people out to hear him, men women and children, of which about one-half were Bryan people. His speech was not cheered much. At the conclusion he asked for all the McKinley people to arise and give three cheers for McKinley and there were about 20 arose in all, they looked very scattering through the house. Then before dismissing, the chairman asked again for three cheers for Idleman, which were much lighter than the McKinley cheers.

CASTORIA.

The fair... is an... The receivership was hastened by

REPUBLICAN PARADE

Cheered Palmer and Buckner in Chicago.

NO FUSSION IN MISSOURI.

Populist Vote Falls Off in the Georgia Election.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—It was stated in General Osborne's office, at the Republican national headquarters today, that the vice-presidential candidate, Doherty, listened through the telephone to shouts and uproar of enthusiasm attending the great Republican parade at Chicago.

CHEERED BY MCKINLEYITES.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Generals Palmer and Buckner, Democratic gold standard candidates, reviewed the Republican procession from the balcony of the Palmer house, and were loudly cheered by the marchers for McKinley.

GEORGIA RETURNS.

ATLANTA, Oct. 9.—Returns received so far of Wednesday election show a total Populist vote not to exceed 85,000. It was 95,888 in 1892, showing a decrease of about 11,000. The falling off is largely attributed to capture of the negro vote by the Democratic Governor Atkinson. Official figures coming in to-day will not materially change the estimate made in these dispatches yesterday.

IN MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9.—Chairman Cook, of the Democratic State committee, said today: "I don't believe fusion can be arranged on the state ticket. The Populists will probably put up a complete ticket and in a friendly spirit we will fight it out along these lines."

FLORIDA ELECTION.

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 9.—According to the latest indications the total vote of the state for governor didn't exceed 40,550, of which Bloxham, Democrat, received 27,220; Groby, Republican, 8550; Weeks, Populist, 4400. There was a loss of about 4800 votes from the aggregate Democratic vote of four years ago. Bloxham's majority over all may not exceed 14,000. Of one hundred members in the senate and house, 91 are Democrats of whom 64 are believed to be against and 27 for the re-election of Wilkinson. Call to the United States senate.

WILL TALK TO WOMEN.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 9.—Bryan will speak here Monday evening at Lyceum theatre, exclusively to ladies. This is a decided innovation in his campaign.

BIYAN IN IOWA.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Oct. 9.—William J. Bryan arrived in Sioux City this morning, one hour behind time. The delay was caused by numerous demands of people at stations along the line to see the presidential candidate. Nearly all night crowds gathered at the stations to cheer Bryan. At Onawa, Monona county, the train stopped ten minutes. Bryan went out on the platform and addressed a large crowd. It was bitterly cold, a strong south wind blew directly into the speaker's face. People went wild with delight.

When the train arrived in Sioux City, the candidates was escorted to the train shed of the Union depot where he spoke thirty minutes to an immense crowd. The enthusiastic reception seemed to please Bryan. After his speech he was driven directly to the Milwaukee depot where a special train was waiting to take the party to St. Paul.

CALIFORNIA POLITICS.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 9.—At the Republican city convention this morning, a resolution endorsing McKinley and the Republican platform was tabled on a close vote, and afterwards the resolution was brought up in a changed form, endorsing McKinley and Hobart and Jas. McLachlan, the nominee of this district, for congress, and it passed amid much enthusiasm.

WOOLEN MILLS CLOSE

Failure to Realize on Sales is the Cause

100 Hands Thrown Out. ALBANY, Oct. 9.—Wednesday morning the Albany Woolen Mills went into the hands of a receiver on motion of J. M. Moyer, L. D. Cole, E. D. Moyer and Mrs. F. F. Croft. The complaint alleges that the plaintiffs own 96 shares in the company, valued at $48,000. That the mills owe various amounts incurred in the operation and management of its business affairs, for amounts for money borrowed, and for money borrowed from individuals in Linn and other counties in Oregon aggregating a total of $120,000. That the mill company is the owner of valuable lands, buildings, notes and other evidences of debt and of large accounts for goods sold to business firms in Portland and Eastern states, and a large stock of goods manufactured and in the course of manufacture and a valuable manufacturing plant at Albany, aggregating in the sum of $140,000. A petition asking for the appointment of Hon. L. F. Finner as receiver was filed with Judge Hewitt who granted it. The receivership was hastened by an action being commenced in Portland against Moyer & Co. by P. Selling for $3,000.

The closing of the mills, if it is permanent, will be a severe loss to the city, as nearly 100 hands are employed. The mill is back about four months with its pay.

"Coln" Denies It.

KEOKUK, Ia., Oct. 9.—Regarding the alleged treatment of W. H. Harvey ("Coln") by an audience at Clinton, Ia., Harvey has furnished the following statement: "There is not one word of truth in the printed report that the audience or any part of it treated me disrespectfully, or took umbrage at what I said at Clinton. The report is made out of whole cloth, and has not one word of truth for its basis."

Bound Over.

SHEEDS, Or., Oct. 9.—Miss Ella Thompson, who did the shooting at Sheeds, was arrested, and waived examination, and was held in $1,000 bonds to await the action of the grand jury. Her father and a neighbor are her bondsmen.

Speech by Lagersoll.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Colonel R. G. Ingersoll addressed a large mass meeting last night in support of McKinley.

AT MARION'S CAPITAL.

Sheriff F. T. Wrightman made another payment to Treasurer Brown of delinquent taxes for 1895, Thursday. The amount turned over was 2,109.60, which leaves a delinquent tax roll for 1895 amounting to $22,306.56. Sheriff Wrightman has been ordered by the county court to advertise and sell the property on which the taxes for 1894-95 have not been paid.

D. W. Gibson has been appointed deputy sheriff to assist for one month. John and Emil Schindler, natives of Switzerland, today received final citizenship papers. They will cast their first vote for president on November 3.

The State Fair.

There is an increasing attendance and some of the exhibits are quite good.

The perfect weather is bringing in many country people, and prospects of an attendance are quite favorable.

YESTERDAY'S RACES.

The races at the fair grounds yesterday resulted as follows:

Pacing, 2:35 class—Bessie Rankin won, Island Maid second, Snowbird third; best time, 2:21. Trotting, 2:18 class—Hugo won, Vanquish second, Coeur d'Alene third; best time, 2:22. Running, half mile, selling—Ione won, Mamie D. second, Kitty Norfolk third; time, 0:50.

Three-eighths mile, selling—Grover won, Jubilee second, Arago third; time, 0:35.

The Fire Patrol.

Beginning Monday night the Bacon Stock company will present at Reeds opera house Hawley's powerful drama "The Fire Patrol," which has enjoyed a most phenomenal success throughout this country and England.

It abounds in strong sensational scenic effects and dramatic situations, with a vein of humor running through it. Act second show a stamp mill in Deadwood, Dak., in full operation. Miss May Nanery is cast for the heroine and will give the part all that her great dramatic ability warrants. As the hero Jack Dallas, the deputy sheriff of Deadwood, Mr. Norval McGregor will be seen to good advantage. This production promises to be one of unusual merit. Popular prices will prevail all over the house during Mr. Bacon's engagement. The box sheet of Patton's is fast filling in.

"THE NONPARIL"

Is the Name of a New Millinery Firm in Salem.

Tomorrow, Saturday, will be opening day for this new Chicago firm, under the management of Mrs. Hooker. Mrs. Hooker authorizes the JOURNAL to state that on account of the late arrival of her goods she will close out all fall stock at a very low figure. All ladies' walking hats and suitors, children's Tam O'Shanter and Scottie caps will be sold at cost, as she has a very large stock on hand. Next door to the First National bank.

AT THE FAIR.—When you go to the fair, you want to look fair, feel fair and be fair. This may be accomplished to a great extent, if you order one of those tailor-made suits of C. H. Lane, the well-known Salem tailor. 10-9-25

USING THE VETERANS

Forcing Them to Fall into Line.

FROM GRAND ARMY RECORD.

How the National Encampment Was Handled.

[Grand Army Record]

Intelligent and patriotic Union soldiers have long since come to the conclusion that all political parties have no sincere and patriotic interest in their welfare except and only as it may seem to repair and build up the political "fences" for demagogues alone. An article editorially approved in the Western (Kansas) Veteran so well expresses this truth that we copy it for the consideration of our readers:

WHAT OF THE FUTURE?

Editor Western Veteran:

The present political struggle has thus far developed nothing new in the attitude of the Republican party toward the Union soldiers; but rather it has emphasized its penchant for ignoring those who endured strife in the ranks in the cause of the union. A few meaningless complaints are, as usual, paid to their valor on the field and their patriotism and devotion to country down through all the years since the stacking of arms. As usual we are addressed as "comrades," with an assurance of love for us that is truly pathetic. As usual we are reminded that the great Republican party has endowed us with pensions and passed laws giving us preference in appointive positions. For these exhibitions of "magnanimity" we are expected, as usual, to again smite our thigh and vote the ticket, no matter what the platform may be, just because it contains the stereotyped effervescence of how we saved the country, and the usual promise to give us a decent burial after we have been trampled to death beneath the heel of class legislation. We are expected to vote the ticket, no matter who the candidates may be. No matter what the issues may be, we are set down as solid for the ticket as confidently as is the colored man forsooth he became free through the necessities of war.

We have listened to the old song of the place-hunter until it has grown tuneless in our ears. We should like a new strain. We have seen millionaires made through our votes, while we were treated to quadrennial feasts of promise intended only to hold us in line. We have had doled out to us a meagre stipend issued as to blanked dependents, while those who did the least real fighting and endured the least hardships, or none, drew princely pensions and walked off with honors and official emoluments. We have witnessed the faith of promises in the operation of laws favoring us in appointments and which have been held up as dead-letter allurements to hold us in line. One has only to look over the list of appointees in this (Kansas) and other states and at Washington to be convinced that these laws are but statutory platitudes engrafted to hold us in line while the big fish swim in sweet waters. Many of us are tired. We have been told in forensic pathos that we are entitled to the little sti-

(Continued on second page.)

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE