Rufus Blaine Hallock and Joseph Hallock, nephews of Joseph Bernardi, were up yesterday from Portland, visiting their uncle and family, and hunting China pheasants.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Varley, Miss Nina Johnson, Miss Leoline Skafte, the pen of Lottie Blair Parker, who also wrote "Way Down East," and it is as true and interesting a picture of the South as that now famous play is of New England.

The story of the play is a very strong and interesting one, and is one that is peculiarly southern. Its characters are distinct types of southern people, many of them being highly diverting. A Halloween celebration and pumpkin dance are among the most attractive features of the performance.

Being the curtain raiser for the season, it should be well attended.

Meals will be better if you buy your meats at Farrington's Market.
