PLAYS AND THE PLAYERS

the middle of July, 1865, in Mechanic's hall at Utica, N. Y. He had a small part in the English version of "The Daughter of the Regiment." He was down on the program as Master William, the great Basso Profundo. Then the I. S. listened to a very interesting recital by an old "Legit," who told how James O'Neill first stood behind the "foots" and held aloft a tin spear, with never a word to speak, at the National theater, Cincinnati. "It must have been a case of stage fright with Jimmy for his brother spear-carriers had to prod him in the ribs before he would move. So interested was he in the speech of Edwin Forrest, who I was supporting at that time," concluded the "Legit" and the water-jug was passed around.

Other recollections of "first times on any stage" were indulged in by the several members of the party, they told how "Nat Goodwin" did his bit at the Boston Athenaeum in the spring of 1874; John Drew at the Arch street theater, Philadelphia, on March 23, 1873, as Plumber in "Cool as a Cucumber." William Gillette, at the Globe theater, Boston, in September 1875, as Guzman in "Faint Heart Never Won Fair Lady," and E. A. Sothorn at Abbey's Park theater, New York, in 1879, in the part of "Sam," a cabman, when he broke into fame with this immortal speech: "Half a crown, your honor, I think you won't object." Then Murray shifted the subject and began to dwell upon the great and glorious past, present and future of Murray & Mack and the I. S. got a "double" for last night's performance, took a hard pull at the ice water pitcher and rushed off to grind out "copy" for the city editor.

New Isben Play.

New York, March 8.—Three new plays were presented this week for the first time, the most notable of which was Isben's "Peer Gynt" in which Richard Mansfield has been touring the country this season. The other two were plays of ordinary calibre which manage to serve the purpose of providing a novelty for the habitual theater goer and of filling up the gaps made by departing shows. The average number of the latter does not seem to touch three a week as compared with last season when the openings of new plays averaged about five a week. Never have the managers experienced so profitable a season as the present. The conditions of two years ago have been exactly reversed. The tendency now is to prolonged engagements, instead of the short runs.

At the New Amsterdam, Richard Mansfield opened for a limited season of four weeks with what must be considered as the most curious and daring production that he or any other actor of the present day has made. By setting Henrik Isben's "Peer Gynt" on the stage he has removed the seal from what some regard as the greatest dramatic poem of 19th century literature. The work when unfolded in action is at once so fantastical and real, so humorous and pathetic, so comical and tragical and so pictorially impressive that it bewilders every one, even those who have studied it in its printed form. To portray it requires five acts set in eleven elaborate spectacular scenes. Of speaking characters there are forty-five, besides two score dancers and as many more "supers." As the story of the play progresses, the meaning of the drama unfolds. Peer is first revealed in his youth as a lazy, shiftless, idler. Then he goes forth into the world conquering all obstacles by avoiding them, living for the attainment of material pleasure. At last he returns home, disillusioned, a tottering, half-demented old man, with hope and aspiration gone, searching wearily for rest and salvation. He finds it in the ideal he had scored in his youth and realizes his true self by surrender and abnegation.

NEW PENSION LAW.

Large Number on the Pension List This Quarter.

The new pension law is being used by old soldiers of the Mexican and Civil wars. The new law grants a pension of $12 to all Mexican war veterans over 62 years who served 60 days and the same sum per month to Civil war veterans of similar age who served ninety days.

County Clerk Allen has issued about 120 blanks from his office this quarter and estimates that there will be approximately 180 warrants for this county. Several have applied under the new law and have been granted pensions under the same.

The Badge of Honesty

Is on every wrapper of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because a full list of the ingredients composing it is printed there in plain English. Forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. It builds up the run-down system as no other tonic can in which alcohol is used. The active medicinal principles of native roots such as Golden Seal and Queen's root, Stone and Mandrake root, Bloodroot and Black Cherry bark are extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well-recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coo, Ellingwood and a host of others, showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action in all weak states of the stomach, accompanied by indigestion or dyspepsia as well as in all bilious or liver complaints and in all wasting diseases where there is loss of flesh and gradual running down of the strength and system.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, pure blood and so invigorates and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, and, through them, the whole system. Thus all skin affections, blotches, pimples and eruptions as well as scrofulous swellings and old open running sores or ulcers are cured and healed. In treating old running sores, or ulcers, it is well to insure their healing to apply to them Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve. If your druggist don't happen to have this Salve in stock, send fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by return post.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

Send the Family Washing To Us and you'll never bother with having it done at home again. Time was when every family could not afford to send the washing to a laundry, but times have changed—so, too, have the methods and prices. Today you can better afford to send the family washing here than not to. Ask about our prices on family washing, rough dry, or finished.
