

SOCIAL AND DRAMATIC EVENTS

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE PAST WEEK

The Elks' minstrels at the Grand Opera House on Monday and Tuesday nights were attended by the biggest turnout seen in this city for some time. "Everybody" was there, scarcely anyone who pretended to be interested in Salem society. The event was a real success, the entire program being sold out. The program consisted of songs, dances, and a variety of other entertainment.

Cable-Pugh Wedding. The wedding of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cable and Mrs. Pugh, which took place at the Elks' hall on Monday night, was a most successful affair. The bride was given in marriage to Dr. Cable, a prominent physician of Portland. The bride is the daughter of W. D. Pugh, the architect of the Capital building. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry T. Babcock of the Presbyterian church.

The wedding was decorated in white. The bride and groom stood under a bell of Easter and similar artistically looped ribbon. The dining room was where the luncheon was served, and the bride was given in marriage to her father, and was handsomely dressed in a gown of white silk, with trimmings of lace and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Miss Eva and Laura Pugh played the organ.

Entertained Friends. The Daughters of the American Revolution, assisted by Everett Guy Hoyt and Paul Rasmussen, entertained a number of friends at their home in South Salem on Monday evening. The time was spent in playing various games; also musical numbers were given. The evening was an enjoyable one and was well attended. The invited guests were: Misses Agnes West, Mildred Lucas, Myrtle Catherine Carson, Essie Keeton, Addie Flake Williams, Mabel Rasmussen, Della Viesco, Delma O'Flynn, Elsie Smith, Maud Hick, Eva Hall, Alma Nye, LaVerne Miller, and Messrs. Cuyler Van Loon, George Keeton, John Humphrey, Lloyd Rasmussen, Ed Viesco, Otto Miller, Ray West.

Church Social.

The Boys' and Girls' club of the Central Congregational church gave a social in their church Wednesday evening. Music and a social good time was enjoyed. Supper was served to about 75 guests. The proceeds will be used to defray church expenses.

"500" Party.

Mrs. R. B. Fleming entertained at "500" on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. The decorations were pink carnations and violets. Mrs. Fleming was assisted by Mrs. Claud Gatch, Mrs. P. E. Spencer, Mrs. Eldridge, Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, Misses Kittle Moore and Ryth Gatch.

Flower Shower.

Miss Minnetta Magers, musical supervisor of the city public schools, was given a pleasant surprise in the way of a flower shower yesterday morning when she went into Miss Beans' room at the Lincoln school to give the pupils their regular singing exercises. On each desk were clusters of daffodils, violets, trilliums, crocuses, bottle flowers, and spring beauties, and after being given a basket Miss Magers was asked to pass by each desk, while each little student gave her their pretty offering.

Surprise Party.

Miss Ferrell Johnson was given a surprise last Saturday afternoon at her home in South Salem by a number of her school friends. The amusement of the afternoon was games including a guessing contest in which the first prize was won by Laura Kearns and the second by Lee Alfred. Refreshments were also served. The guests were: Lee Alfred, Addie Lewis, Irma Botsford, Hazel Keeler, Laura Kearns, Mina Arnold.

Child Labor Program.

Unitarian church, Sunday evening will be given the following at 7:45: Chorus, Blind school. Address, "Child Labor, a National Disgrace," Chas. V. Galloway. Chorus, Blind school. Address, illustrated by stereopticon views, "Child Slaves," Mrs. Millie Trumbull of Portland, secretary of state child labor committee. Chorus, Blind school. Short addresses, "Child Labor in Oregon," Mr. O. P. Hoff, state labor commissioner, "Sequel to Child Labor in Oregon," J. H. Ackerman, superintendent of public instruction.

Fine Birthday Present.

Miss Marguerite Willson, who attained her seventeenth birthday last Monday, was the recipient of a fine horse and buggy, a gift of her father, James W. Willson, who thinks there is nothing too good for his charming daughter.

Woman's Auxiliary.

The woman's auxiliary to board of missions of St. Paul's Episcopal church held its regular monthly meeting at the residence of Mrs. George Bingham Friday afternoon. Mrs. Scadding delivered an address on "General Mission Work." Afterwards refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, olives and coffee, were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. Carlton Smith.

Fortieth Wedding Anniversary.

The fortieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Ryan was celebrated Thursday by the ladies of the G. A. R. in their hall. A large number of the comrades and friends were present. A grand spread was provided of substantial and delicate of "Pinafore." The decorations were jack-o'-lanterns and ribbons of gold and white crepe paper—the class colors. Games were played, and a number of musical selections given, and later two short dramas were given by the students. Miss Vera Kitchen served punch. Nearly every member of the class was present.

Car Service Improved.

cles, and a beautiful set of china fruit dishes and other tokens were presented by Mrs. D. C. Howard, in behalf of the ladies, and responded to by Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Ryan. There was only one person that was at the marriage 46 years ago, Mrs. Ryan's brother, C. Potter, of Fox Valley, and one that was at their tenth anniversary, Mrs. M. C. Rice, of York, Neb. All had a very pleasant time, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Ryan continued prosperity the balance of life.

Freshman Party.

The class of 1911, of the Salem high school, was entertained by the faculty at the school last night. The entertainment was in the nature of a taffypull, and was given the class for their having sold the largest number of tickets for the production substituted. Old 26 has gone to the bone yard, and has done valiant service. When she went out both motors were gone, two of the steps were missing, front and rear bay windows were missing, and it was a happy medium between riding out-doors or taking a trip on a spring-tooth drag over new broken land. The new car has fine rush-bottomed spring seats and glides along like a motor boat on a smooth lake, with the mufflers on the gasoline works. The old car was ready to be run in at any time, and the police had been called several times, but were undecided whether to take it to the jail or the hospital. The No. 36 will be appreciated and patronized with a wild desire for better transportation, that has always filled the breast of the South Salem people.

FUJI-KO, JAPANESE STAGE BEAUTY.

Fuji-Ko, the Japanese actress who captivated London, is a rare type of the oriental beauty and, besides being a talented actress, is a brilliant wit. She speaks English fluently and is a student of the English drama as well as the drama of her own country.

WILL BORE FOR OIL

Work on Witteker Farm East of
Work on Witteker Farm East of
D. M. Watson.

B. F. Witteker, a prominent farmer residing near Monmouth, was in Dallas Saturday morning. Mr. Witteker has just completed a contract by which he hopes to secure the oil which he is confident exists in paying quantities on his land.

A portion of the land has been leased to D. M. Watson of Portland a man of years of experience in that line of work. Mr. Watson has contracted to begin sinking the first well within eight days, and to have it completed within four months after its beginning. From that time his lease is to continue for 10 years, or during the time which oil in paying quantities is secured from the various wells. Mr. Witteker is to receive a liberal royalty from the profits of the industry.

The contour of the land in that place and the texture of the soil is claimed by man who are competent judges to be strikingly similar to that of the oil fields of Pennsylvania and other oil states, and many encouraging evidences of the presence of a considerable quantity of oil have been found.

It will be remembered by many that a well was commenced at that place about four years ago. The enterprise was financed by local capital and the well was sunk to a considerable depth before the project was finally abandoned. The work had been placed in the hands of inexperienced workmen and when the drilling had progressed to a considerable depth, water was allowed to get into the well through an unfortunate mistake, and the labor of several months was ruined.

Mr. Witteker did not give up his conviction that oil existed in paying quantities upon his property, however, and he is confident of the ultimate success of the present project. Before the well that had been drilled four years ago was so unfortunately made valueless, the signs of the presence of oil were so many and so evident, that there is great probability that the proposed well, sunk under the supervision of experts will achieve the success that was denied before.—Dallas Observer.
