

SATURDAY WILL SEE 10,000 PEOPLE IN SALEM

To Witness the First Great Annual Demonstrat- ing In Fine Blooded Horse Flesh

Over $1000 in prizes, and 200 entries have been made for the first annual exhibit of the Salem and Marion County Horse Breeders association to be held on Court street Saturday at 10 a. m.

Col. L. K. Page will be grand marshal of the parade and will have mounted side.

Rain or shine the finest bunch of blooded equines ever gathered together in Marion county will be on exhibition. Salem will deliver into the hands of the horsemen the key to the city, and the holiday spirit will reign supreme.

An arrangement for the big day are completed, and at the meeting of the Salem Horse Show association tonight at 7:30 in the rooms of the board of trade the final details will be worked out and when tomorrow's sun rises, everything will be in readiness.

Line of March.

Assemble on streets surrounding court house on east and north; west on Court to Liberty; north on Liberty to Chemeketa; west to Commercial; south to Willamette hotel; countermarch to State street; east to Church; north to Court, where judging will begin immediately after the parade.

Plenty of Music.

Three bands will appear in the parade and throughout the day, will entertain the crowds. The bands participating are the Chemawa Indian Training School band, the Salem Military band, and McElroy's band, all of which have an enviable reputation.

The block on Court street between High and Church streets will be used as the arena and will be roped on either side to keep the spectators from interfering with the work of the judges. Chief of Police Gibson will have an extra force detailed for the day to assist at this point in maintaining order and insuring promptness in the exhibiting of the horses.

The entries up to 5 o'clock last evening exceeded the hundred mark, and horses have begun to arrive from distant points.

There will be stock on exhibition from all parts of the county and the principal towns of the valley.

Foot Races After Supper.

Lue Savage announces that he has arranged for a number of foot races on State street after supper. They will take place between Liberty and Commercial, when there will be a dozen contests and cash prizes for the swiftest lads. Slim Lindsey and Geo. Savage are the official starters and there will be something doing every minute.

HOSPITAL ON FIRE TODAY

Great excitement prevailed in the Willamette Sanitarium at 2 o'clock this morning, when fire broke out in the basement and completely flooded the building with smoke. At first unable to locate the fire and fearing that the building was doomed, the 15 patients were carried out by the attendants, but fortunately the removal was orderly and well-managed and there were no fatalities.

The conflagration was found in the furnace room in the basement when the fire department arrived and was quickly extinguished before it had done other damage than destroying the basement and burning through in spots to the first floor. Several flames were slightly cut by flying glass. The patients were removed to nearby houses and carefully attended to. The damage to the building, it is estimated, will not exceed $50.

BOY THOUGHT TO BE BRIT- TAIN LAD BORN AT BAKER CITY

R. J. Brittain, a photographer of Walla Walla, whose son, Cecil, then five years old, was kidnapped from his parents at Tool Gate, Oregon, in the Blue Mountains, in July, 1905, and who left home for Marshall, Washington, a few days ago in the belief that his long lost child had been located there, is now thoroughly satisfied that he made a mistake, and that the boy whom he thought was his son is in reality Jesse Hart, the son of Mrs. L. M. Hart, a variety actress.

What lead Mr. Brittain to believe for a time that he had found his kidnapped child was the striking resemblance between Jesse Hart and Cecil, and the fact, as asserted by the latter's father, that the Hart boy resembles his own son in almost every act. Abundant proof, however, was furnished by Mrs. Hart, whose stage name is Mable Lavelle, that Jesse Hart is really her own son.

Boy Was Born In Baker City.

"There is nothing mean about the child, but it is simply impossible to keep him at home," said Mrs. Hart. "He has a mania for running away. Jesse was born in Baker City, Oregon, ten years ago. I brought him and his younger sister with me when I came to Spokane from Milton, Oregon, six years ago, there are many people in Spokane who have known my boy ever since that time. I have pictures of him taken ever since he was a baby boy, and the resemblance is so plain that any one would recognize him. I am on the road so much that I have always left the children in the care of others, and I am permitting the boy to go to this new home because I think it is for the best."

COOPER TELLS REPORTER WHY HE ACCOMPLISHES SO MUCH

No man in recent years has been more successful in restoring human health than L. T. Cooper. During his stay in Chicago, and while he was meeting thousands of people daily, he gave the following reason for the remarkable demand for his medicine to a reporter:

Mr. Cooper said: "My New Discovery is successful because it corrects the stomach. My theory is that few can be sick if the digestive apparatus is working properly. It naturally follows that few can be well with a poor digestion."

"I know from experience that most of the third, half sick people that are so common now-a-days have half-sick stomachs. Put the stomach in shape, and nature does the rest. The result is general good health. My medicine does this. That is why fifty thousand people here in Chicago are using it who never heard of me until a month ago."

Among the fifty thousand mentioned by Mr. Cooper who used his medicine in Chicago is Mrs. Hilda Pfeiffer, living at 1203 Ansline Avenue. This is the statement she makes concerning her experience with the medicine:

"I have been sick for six years with stomach trouble. I was always hungry, but did not dare to eat much, as I had severe pains in my stomach, and all through my body. I could not sleep at night and was very restless. I was also very nervous, and would have severe headaches. I was constipated, and always felt bloated after eating."

"I had tried many remedies, but could secure no relief, until one day I noticed in the newspapers what wonderful results Cooper's medicine were accomplishing in Chicago. I decided to try them, and shortly after commencing the treatment I began to feel better. I did not have those severe pains in my stomach, and I could sleep at night; my appetite improved, and I can now eat well. I am feeling like a new woman."

"I am very thankful to Mr. Cooper for what his remedies have done for me. They have restored me to good health, and I would advise any one who suffers as I did to try them."

We sell the Cooper medicines. They are easily the most celebrated preparations ever introduced in this country, growing in popularity daily.

PARENT WHO GOT EXEMPTION

The Legislature Considered His Achievements Deserved Recognition.

Richmond, Va.—(Special.)—The clerk for the investing committee went to Virginia by the legislature of West Virginia to look into the records and other data concerning the debt question involving the two states, unearthed some queer old statutes. One such, passed in 1837, reads:

"Whereas, it is represented to the general assembly that William Lynch, Sr., of the county of Brunswick, is the father of 34 legitimate children, of whom 27 are now living, that he has been the husband of four wives, the last of whom is now young and healthy and gives him every assurance of an increase of his numerous progeny, that he was a soldier in the war of the Revolution and has been through life an upright and useful citizen, and that age, and the support of his numerous family have at length rendered him infirm and poor,

"Be it enacted by the general assembly that William Lynch, of the county of Brunswick, shall be hereafter exempt from the payment of any public or county tax, tax levy, charge or contribution whatever, and it shall not be lawful for any court, sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner or other public officer within this commonwealth to demand or receive of said Lynch any such tax, levy, charge or contribution."

The principle that a man who rears, feeds, clothes and educates a large family is entitled to exemption from taxation is sound.

President Roosevelt Says.

That outdoor exercise is needed by the American people. That's all rheumatism follow that advice. The answer is simple—use Ballard's Snow Liniment, and the rheumatism will go, leaving you as spry as a colt. Gives quick and permanent relief from rheumatism, neuralgia, lame back and all pains. Sold by all dealers.

Valparaiso Rebuilding Slowly.

The Government of Chile has made no provision for aiding individuals to rebuild, providing only for widening and straightening of some of the Valparaiso streets and rebuilding the public buildings, the appropriations amounting to $7,476,000. Neither has there been any concerted action taken on the part of interested parties to secure loans with which to rebuild. But little has been done as yet in that portion of the city that suffered the most further than to clear away some of the rubbish and erect temporary quarters until such time as provision can be made for rebuilding. A large proportion of buildings that were not beyond repair have been put in shape, which has greatly relieved the strain. Most of the temporary shanties have been removed from the streets, boulevards and parks, and the people are comfortably housed. Warehouses for the storage of merchandise are most needed, for these suffered the most, being located near the water's edge, where foundations were laid on made ground.

No labor troubles have interfered with the rebuilding of the city other than a great increase of wages, which are now double what they were before the earthquake, and the work in general has progressed quite satisfactorily, considering the financial situation.

No additional building regulations have been made, either by the general government or by the city authorities, other than to change the building line on some of the streets, etc.—Consular Report.

The Clens.

acrobats finds it necessary at all times to keep his muscles and joints supple. That is the reason that hundreds of them keep a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment always on hand. A sure cure for rheumatism, cuts, sprains, sore throat, lame back, contracted muscles, corns, bunions, and all pains. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle sold by all dealers.

DOWNFALL OF WHITSON CAUSED BY HARD DRINK

Portland Traveling Man Arrested at Walla for Passing Bad Checks in Eugene Recently.

The Portland Journal tells of the downfall of G. M. Whitson, the Portland traveling man who was arrested at Walla Walla a few days ago for passing worthless checks in Eugene several weeks ago and who was taken to that city by Sheriff Flick from Walla Walla. The Journal says:

Fallen from the high estate and humiliated and disgraced, G. M. Whitson, well-known in this city as the representative of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company, the Guggenheim syndicate, is under arrest at Walla Walla charged with passing worthless checks upon the manager of the Hotel Smeede and the manager of the Chambers Hardware company of Eugene. The checks were not for large amounts, $30 and $40, and seems a travesty upon the big business deals that Whitson has put through during his career in Portland. To his friends the small crimes to which Whitson seems to have stooped bear with the news of them a distinct feeling of sorrow for the man who has had so brilliant future as Whitson.

Whitson superintended the sale by his employers of all the steel that is contained in the Wells, Fargo building and personally attended to its delivery. He sold millions of tons of rails to the O. R. & N. company and the Hill line and was considered one of the steel company's best men. His troubles commenced with the "wool of the sky-scaper." His deliveries of steel frame work for the big express building were slow and there was much complaint that Whitson was not attending to business. The affairs of the steel company were not managed as the head office thought they should be, and Whitson was brought up with a sharp turn by his employers. To his cottage at Sausalito Whitson retreated for several weeks and in his absence the order came for his discharge.

Drink is said to have caused Whitson's downfall. He drank to excess while in Portland, and when he went to Southern Oregon, ostensibly for the purpose of selling hardware for a San Francisco firm, he is said to have continued his debauches. Needing money he went to the proprietor of the Smeede hotel in Eugene and asked him to cash a check on a Portland bank for $30. He then cashed a $40 check on the same bank with the Chambers Hardware company.

The next morning Whitson left Eugene for Portland, whence he departed for Walla Walla. The checks came back to Eugene marked "no funds," and after consultation with the Eugene authorities the hotel and hardware people requested Sheriff Flick, of Eugene, to cause Whitson's arrest. Requisition papers were asked for at Salem and granted and Whitson brought back to Eugene for trial.

Demand for Real Estate.

There is not a day people do not call at this office and go over the files of The Capital Journal looking for real estate advertisements. Real property owners have not used the newspapers as much as they should, and there are many complaints from eastern people who get copies of Salem papers that no lists of real estate appear in them. Hundreds of copies of The Journal are sent away to eastern people daily and they immediately get the impression that there is either no real estate for sale or there is none selling. In most cities pages are taken to announce real estate for sale. As the curbstone business is declining it is expected that more publicity will be given the thousands of pieces of property that are for sale. It is all advancing in price and advertising makes rapid sales possible.

"E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Gentlemen—In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. In the spring of 1902 I bought a bottle of Kodol and the benefit I received all the gold in Georgia could not buy. May you live long and prosper. Yours very truly, C. N. Cornell, Rodlog, Ga., Aug. 27, 1906." Sold by all druggists.
