CAN'T DO IT AGAIN

San Francisco, Feb. 25.—Monte Attell, who was relieved of his title of bantam weight champion at Los Angeles on Washington's birthday by little Frankie Conley, returned home today accompanied by his manager, Harry Foley.

While Attell wants a return match with Conley in the near future, he made it plain that he did not want to go over 25 rounds. Attell says he is willing to bet $1000 that he can beat Conley at that distance.

PURELY ACCIDENTAL ON THE DOG'S PART

Daniel Webster, Salem's Justice of the peace, sustained a painful injury this morning while riding his bicycle down State street, by being thrown to the pavement by a large dog which jumped into the front wheel of the machine. The rider was thrown heavily to the hard pavement which bruised him about the body and several painful cuts were made upon the head. Dr. Harry Clay dressed the Justice's wounds and made him as comfortable as possible.
