

A Grand Fur Exposition AND SALE Today and Tomorrow

READ THIS SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Two representatives of the leading fur houses of New York City will hold forth in our Fur section today and tomorrow with a superb showing of exclusive and strictly new furs. Arrangements were perfected months ago for this event, and we have planned an unusual exhibition of these beautiful creations for the people of Salem and vicinity. No better time to make Christmas selection, while this large and varied collection is at hand. Be sure to see the very latest Parisian styles in fine fur. All of our high class furs—every piece in stock—will be offered at special attractive prices. The assortment consists of all that is new, all that is desirable—and the prices will prove very attractive. Visit the fur section and see this grand showing.

SALEM HEIGHTS LADIES AID HAS GOOD MEETING

Just nine ladies ventured out in the rain Wednesday afternoon, all members of the Ladies' Aid of Salem Heights, to enjoy the hospitality of their president, Mrs. Myra Sawyer. The ladies were very glad to welcome back Mrs. Fred Thompson, their treasurer, who on account of poor health had been absent since March; also Mrs. H. Higgins, who had been visiting a daughter in Seattle for two months.

The treasurer reported $40 on hand, and the time was passed in making plans for raising more money to pay for finishing the hall, in sewing and having a good social time. It is needless to say the time passed all too swiftly, and all felt well repaid for braving the storm.

The following named ladies were present to partake of the dainty lunch Mrs. Sawyer served: Mrs. Frank Thompson, Mrs. Bell Rench, Mrs. Hannah Higgins, Mrs. Bell Morris, Mrs. Hattie Sawyer, Mrs. L. Campbell, Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mrs. C. E. Speaker, Mrs. Cretoria C. Pascoe.

"WHAT HAPPENED TO MARY?"

"What Happened to Mary" has been secured for the Grand opera house on Thanksgiving Day, with two performances. This is a fortunate booking for Manager Waters, and one worthy of special notice as the attraction is to be seen in but very few one-night stands this season, its time having been almost entirely booked in the larger cities of the country. This is strong evidence of the strength of the organization.

FARM MANAGEMENT WILL BE DISCUSSED AT MEETING

All who are interested in the agricultural development of the county are invited to be present at the meeting to be held in the auditorium of the Promotion Department of the Commercial club tonight.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the work of the office of farm management in Marion county, which is being carried on by Luther J. Chapin.

The officials of the county court will be present. Among the speakers of the evening will be Professor H. T. French, state leader, representing the government in connection with the agricultural college; Dr. Withycombe, director of the experiment station at O. A. C.; and Luther J. Chapin, government farm expert.

ATTENTION, MEMBERS OF W. B. C.

Mrs. Frank A. Thompson will entertain the Sedgwick Relief Corps No. 1, Saturday, November 23, instead of Thursday, the usual day for the sewing society to meet. Mrs. Thompson will be assisted by Mrs. E. J. Remington and Mrs. C. M. Lockwood. As all these ladies have a birthday this week, they take this way to celebrate it. Take the South Commercial street car and get off at Salem Heights avenue. Cars pass the house.

DEATH NOTICES.

RYAL.

B. N. Ryal died November 18, 1913, at Edmonton, Canada. The body will be shipped to Salem, and the funeral will be held here on a date to be announced later. His mother, sisters and brothers reside here.

NICHOLSON-PHILLIPS.

At the residence of Mrs. Kissling, 1275 E street, Salem, Or., November 20, 1913, Arthur Nicholson and Katherine Phillips, both of Marion county. Rev. H. E. Marshall officiated. The couple departed on the southbound S. P. train for the south.

ON OLD-TIME REVIVAL.

To all my old friends and the Christian people of Salem, who want to see people saved in North Salem, to the scores of people who were saved in the revival held by me three years ago, I am led to say that two years ago I promised to hold a meeting in the Church of God, at Sixth and Hood streets, North Salem, for Elder Wilson. The meetings are now going on and souls are coming to God. Hundreds ought to be reached. Let everybody come. Sunday will be a great day. Rev. Irvine, of the Jason Lee Memorial church, will preach this evening. D. N. McInturff.

The packers shouldn't be discouraged, even if one can't make a silk purse of a sow's ear. They may eventually be used for hat trimmings.
