

Plymouth Congregational church, was given in Plymouth church Tuesday evening. Professor Williams Tableau d'Art company gave a number of representations, and there were numerous recitations.

The Y. M. C. A. glee club is becoming quite a demand lately. On last Sunday evening the club sang for the young people's society of the First Baptist church. The club is composed of a number of good singers and the music furnished is of a first class order.

Mrs. F. W. Brown, Mrs. Ewing, Mrs. Coffroth, Mrs. Horton and Miss Miller will give a Kettledrum this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Euckstaff, for the benefit of the altar guild of Holy Trinity church.

Miss Vine Gahan of Grand Island who was the guest of Mrs. Lew Marshall, returned home Thursday. She was accompanied by Mrs. Marshall who will spend several days in Grand Island.

Information has reached this city that Professor T. M. Hodgman, of the state university, is being considered in connection with the presidency of the new University of Montana.

Mr. Carl Burnham, of Omaha, was initiated into the Beta Theta Pi fraternity last Tuesday evening. An impromptu banquet was held immediately after the initiation.

There has been some talk of another Pleasant Hour party, but the majority of the members appear to be in favor of resting on the laurels already accumulated.

William Burke and Miss Alice Schmidt, of Friend, were married in the parlors of the Capital hotel Wednesday morning by Rev. John Hewitt.

Miss Elmer D. Frank, of Omaha, and Miss Ed. W. Howe, of Atchison, sister of Elmer D. and Albion W. Frank, visited Lincoln this week.

The Round Table will meet at the residence of W. J. Bryan 1625 D street, Monday, April 22. Mr. Bryan will discuss "Silver; 16 to 1."

The Lincoln Light Infantry gave an exhibition drill Monday night at Germania hall. There was a dance after the drill.

M. A. Ackerman left this week for St. Louis where Mrs. Ackerman has been visiting. They will return to Lincoln Sunday.

The English club will meet this evening at the home of Judge Broady at Nineteenth and Sewell streets.

Miss Cora Parker, instructor of art at the university, has completed a beautiful study in oil of Easter lillies.

The Lincoln Light Infantry will be mustered into the National guards by Major Fechet Monday.

Miss Florence Putnam came home from Oak Park seminary, Chicago, for the Easter holidays.

Professor Sieveking left for the east Tuesday. He will be gone for some time on a concert tour.

The Society of the Hall in the Grove met last night at the residence of Mrs. E. P. Smith.

N. S. Harwood returned Monday from New York, Boston and various points in the east.

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity gave a dancing party in Lansing hall last evening.

J. T. Mastin was called to Lanark, Ill., this week, by the illness of his mother.

Mrs. W. D. Patton and Miss Mabel Patton left Thursday for San Francisco.

A. K. Andriano, of Omaha, spent several days in Lincoln this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton R. Lee have returned from their eastern trip.

Mrs. John C. Allen returned Monday from a week's stay in Chicago.

Sorosis met at the residence of Mrs. Tibbets Monday afternoon.

E. B. Doane has been elected assistant secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

Mrs. A. B. Clark left for New York Monday.

R. D. Miller left for New York Monday.

Prof. F. W. Taylor is in Chicago.

Rev. E. H. Chapin is in Illinois.

MUSICAL NOTES.

Mr. Sieveking left for his eastern tour last Tuesday. This will include all the principal cities of the east and will be made by him as soloist of the Boston Festival orchestra. He will return Sept. 1st to resume his duties in connection with the university conservatory.

The university conservatory will hold a special summer term for many who desire to continue and for those who have not an opportunity to study during the winter.

Mrs. S. A. Perkins of Tacoma, Wash. visited with her sister Mrs. Kimball at the conservatory this week.

The bringing of the two great musical organizations, Gilmore's band and Thomas' orchestra reflect much credit on those who were instrumental in securing them for Lincoln. Their appearance ought to be made an annual event.

The music at St. Paul's Methodist church on Easter Sabbath was of a very high order both morning and evening and was listened to by a congregation that crowded the house to its utmost capacity.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE